Planning a fun-filled outstation trip is always a challenging experience. It requires extensive knowledge of different locations before picking the right one. Several places within Europe are extremely popular among the tourists. However, when it is hen weekend trip, the choice of location needs to be done in a bit more careful way.

One can also give a thought about going for a Puerto Banus hen weekend trip. A couple of days in the Spanish marina will be wonderful experience. Without a doubt, you all will love it. You can also extend your holiday trip. Puerto Banus is very near to Marbella. So, why not first visit Marbella, stay in there for a couple of days, and then head towards Puerto Banus? It will be a nice experience as Marbella in itself is a beautiful planned town. It is filled with designer showrooms and boutiques. The streets are filled with fast and expensive cars. Yacht and luxury cruise rides are the most preferred option for the tourists visiting this place.

Puerto Banus hen outing will be memorable because of the wide range of activities available in there. It is one of the most visited places within the Costa Del Sol region of Spain. Approximately five to six million visitors travel to this beautiful marina town annually. The marina is famous for the fabulous shopping centers availability as well the long coasts. Girls love to visit this place because of the shopping malls and arcades present in there.

Puerto Banus hen features for some of the most famous hotels with top-level accommodation facility. The rates may well be on the higher side, but hen parties come once in life. Affording the finest comforts during such a vacation should be given priority.
