Renting an apartment in Ibiza ensure a homely stay by Alan Youghal

Article published on December 6th 2011 | Business

The small Island of Ibiza is a part of the Balearic Islands off the east coast of Spain. Ibiza is known for its famous nightlife and thousands of partygoers are drawn to the island every year to enjoy the holidays. The high season in Ibiza for the famous nightclubs is between August and September which is known as the high peak season. The waters of Ibiza are known as the cleanest in the Mediterranean with many of the beaches are located. The beaches at Cala Tarida near San Antonio Bay and Cala Portinatx both are known for its cleanliness and are very popular with families. The very shallow water and lifeguards at Sa Caleta make it the ideal place for young children. The attraction in Ibiza is the most famous glass bottomed boat trips which provide a unique view of the marine life.

Accommodation in Ibiza is difficult during peak season.

The best options for tourists when in Ibiza are to take on rent apartment Ibiza which gives the homely feeling while holidaying. Self-catering gives the freedom to enjoy your own holiday away from the constraints of a hotel. But location is very important in Ibiza according to the holidays you are determined to have. If you are looking for a lively party atmosphere then you should look for a rent apartment Ibiza near party resorts like San Antonio and Playa D'en Bossa which are the most popular sites but the rent may be higher. Ibiza apartments can range from the very basic to the luxury end of the market to make your stay comfortable and affordable. Most Holiday Rentals Ibiza usually include some basic cooking facilities like kitchen area and a fridge. These holiday rentals Ibiza have the facilities below a 3 star rating and are likely to have very limited cooking facilities and often do not have pots and pans which you have to take care of yourself.

Taking a rent house in Ibiza can ensure a comfortable stay.

June and September are the best months when you can get rent house Ibiza deals. You always get cheaper flight tickets if you are flying from Tuesday to Thursday and if you book in advance you may get the cheaper tickets. You can even get fantastic offers for rent house Ibiza, rent apartment Ibiza and villas if you go on offseason months. If you are going in August, it is better you could stay on a campsite which will be more interesting and enjoyable. When you go for renting a rent house Ibiza or camping you can get all your stuff from the supermarket and can prepare your own food. The travelling between the main resorts and towns can be done by opting for buses which are a cheap and reliable method of transport.
