Cloud Computing Market in India 2011-2015

TechNavio's analysts forecast the Cloud Computing market in India to grow at a CAGR of 54.5 percent over the period 2011-2015. One of the key factors contributing to this market growth is the growing need to reduce capital and operational expenditure. The Cloud Computing market in India has also been witnessing growing adoption of handheld devices. However, lack of data security and privacy could pose a challenge to the growth of this market. http://www.bharatbook.com/information-technology-market-research-reports/cloud-computing-market-in-india-2011-2015.html
