Article Side
Selection of Highly Skilled Migrant Program for New Zealand Migration by Abhinav

Article published on April 11th 2012 | Business

The Immigration Minister of New Zealand has recently brought some changes in the selection process of skilled migrant. According to that, the priority will be given to those who got job offer in New Zealand or residing in the country with job. The new amendment makes the Selection of Highly Skilled Migrant Program for New Zealand Migration quite interesting, includes some changes in point system, which is known as an integral part of selection process. The new scheme reveals that, if the applicants gain 140 points or above on the Expression of Interest (EOI), he will get the privilege of direct selection from the pool, which will make them eligible to apply for a permanent residence in the country.

Besides, those applicants who get job offer in New Zealand and score 100 to 140 points, will be eligible for skilled immigration and business migration in the country.  The selection of Highly Skilled Migrant Program for New Zealand Migration is consisted of several steps, which have been described below.

1)Submission of EOI form, this is known as the first step of selection process of skilled migrants in New Zealand. It is quite necessary for an applicant to fill the Expression of Interest application form carefully, as it determines their eligibility in especially two areas, skilled migrant point system and general background information. The applicants are suggested to submit the application form through online, which is the only way to save time as well as money. The payment can be made by using credit card. Once your EOI gets the approval and enter into pool, you will be notified accordingly.

2)EOI Pool Draw, it is the second stage of selection, plays a key role in skilled migration program for New Zealand migration process. If your EOI application gets 100 points, it will enter into EOI Pool. Besides, if an applicant gets 140 points for EOI, will automatically be selected from pool. Moreover, the EOI that scores between 100 to 140 points will be selected according to the availability of the place in New Zealand. You are suggested to fill the EOI application form with lots of concentration to avoid any omission in terms of information and check the completed application form twice before submitting. The EOI application form contains the whole information about the candidates including their family background and status.

3)Official Invitation, once your application form gets selected from EOI pool, you will get official information regarding the invitation to apply. It is the third step of skilled migration program for New Zealand migrant that involves the submitting the proof of some important information, which mentioned in your EOI form. You will be asked to provide several important documents that include proof of English speaking fluency, medical, police checks and others.

4) Final Assessment, The final step is based on evaluation and assessment of information provided by the applicants. This step grants you the right of permanent residence in New Zealand and stay in the country. Besides, the final assessment also includes personal interview for some candidates, depends on their eligibility. If you successfully qualify the interview, you will get an opportunity to settle in New Zealand.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/business-articles/selection-of-highly-skilled-migrant-program-for-new-

Abhinav - About Author:
a ABHINAV Immigration is the World's leading Immigration and visa Consultation Company since its inception in 1994. Abhinav is engaged in providing professional assistance to immigrants and visa applicants applying for work permits, residence permit or  a New Zealand visa.

Article Keywords:
Skilled Migrant Program ,New Zealand Migration ,Immigration

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!