Australia, the continent country is not only famous for its status as a biodiversity hotspot but also for its investor friendly atmosphere and cordial population. With an economy of US$ 1.23 trillion, Australia is the 13th largest economy and one of the fastest growing nations in the world. Not to miss that the country ranks 15th in terms of business freedom in the international arena!

The procedures for starting a business are very relaxed. It also provides one of the best banking services for its citizens as four of the nine "AAA" rated banks are located in Australia. Low tariff and tax rates are other business friendly credentials. When it comes to living standard, Australia is home to one of the most amiable citizenry. The country was ranked second in the United Nations Human Development Index of 2010 and The Economist ranked it sixth in its worldwide quality of life index of 2005. The Senior Executive (Provisional) Visa is provided by the country to overseas businessmen who are interested to set up their company and live in Australia.
