The Lone Star State is the largest state in the country and if you wish to have romantic vacations in Texas, the state surely has more to offer than you can take. When planning a vacation in Texas make sure itâ€™s either the spring or fall. The summers in Texas are very hot and with high humidity.

1. San Antonio, TX

The San Antonio River Walk is the most romantic place to be in downtown San Antonio. The place has numerous restaurants and shops up and down the tree-lined promenade on the either side of the canal. Places of historical importance like the La Villita and Alamo are in close proximity. However, do not miss the river barge tour. If you wish for romantic restaurants try a waterside table along the River Walk.

2. Texas Hill Country

When planning for romantic vacations in texas, Texas Hill Country comes to mind. The place is filled with Meadows and streams, vibrant wildflowers and rolling hills. The serene atmosphere makes it the best romantic retreats in Texas.

3. Fredericksburg

Fredericksburg is the most wonderful and attractive, Bavarian-style town located deep in the heart of Texas. It is the hub of the Hill Country and is certainly worth a visit. The best part of this romantic vacation in Texas is the Hill Country bed and breakfast and the number of day spas in that area.

4. Dallas

The first stop when planning romantic vacations in Texas is always Dallas/Ft. Worth. The place has some of the best collection of dance clubs, cafes, international cuisine restaurants and one-of-a-kind shops. It also has the Sixth Floor Museum, the place where President Kennedy was assassinated. And if you love the cowboy culture and in love with the west, the Fort Worth Stockyards will surely give you good dose of it!

5. Beaches

The state has two very beautiful beaches that will make a romantic vacation so special:

â€¢ South Padre Island â€“ This is the top Texas beach with the sand and warm water. The beach gets a little swamped during spring. The place offers numerous options in dining and entertainment too.

â€¢ Galveston Island â€“ This is a gulf coast beach filled with a whole range of amusements, activities, restaurants and accommodation.

Now that you have so many choices, way to go Yee-haw!
