Article Side

Subscription Billing â€“ Complete Billing Management Solution for your Business by Chris Adam

Article published on January 5th 2012 | Business

Billing is always an important issue when it comes to business. Everyday thousands of bills need to be verified and generated but subscription billing seems to handle the billing problems in a safe, easy, cost efficient, accurate and professional manner. This billing solution can easily track payments and can even follow up on the outstanding account balances.

Features of Billing Service:

This billing solution is completely time-saving as it easily automates your billing as well as the collection process. Various important features of this service include:

Easy to use â€“ This service is completely convenient to use as the customer billing information is automatically stored in the database as soon as the customer makes the first transaction.

Free of charges â€“ This billing service does not require any additional fees as it is included in the service pack it.

Additional features â€“ This service also includes certain additional features which might be added to provide benefit to the customers in form of discounts, one-time credits, etc.

Completely flexible â€“ This billing service can easily accommodate different billing scenarios and can also make changes as per the userâ€™s needs and requirements.

Manageable â€“ This is an easy to manage service as new clients can be added, customerâ€™s profile ca be reactivated/deactivated, credit cards which are about to expire can also be handled efficiently.

Quick payments â€“ This feature allows the user to schedule the payments on the basis of day/month/year and also send notification weekly/month/annually.

As this is a highly trusted service and also free of charge hence this is used in accounting, law, health care industry, consultancy firms, and website designing companies, suppliers and wholesalers. subscription billing service completely resolves all your billing issues and helps you in managing the workflow. This is definitely the best solution for all your billing needs as it works with you to make your business shine.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/business-articles/subscription-billing-complete-billing-management-solution-for-your-business.htm - Article Side

Chris Adam - About Author:
For more information on a subscription billing, check out the info available online; these will help you learn to find the a subscription billing!

Article Keywords:
subscription billing

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!