Your decoration style can give a large look to your home. If you want to give a large look to your home then you have to keep in mind the color scheme, lighting understanding and furniture placement. In other case, you have a smart and beautiful house already despite this you have an option to renovate your home. If you want to get a more space then you can knock a wall. By reducing this wall you can get 2 to 3 feet worth of space. Adding window in a wall can create a brighter location in your house.

Try to open up

Most of the rooms and houses have the overcrowded look because the house owner blocks the outlook into the room. Hence you need to re-place the furniture such that it is away from walkways. This setup will give a wide feel. You must try to leave the floor visible because it provides the open look to your house. Do not congest your floor with table because it will look mess up.

Adding mirrors

If you put mirrors on the walls then it can give the larger look to your house so you should have a mirrored wall into your house. The space and light will reflect with style and it will give more open feeling. Moreover the mirrored furniture is also very popular in these days so you can use for open feel.

Furniture

Many styles of furniture are available in these days like folded chairs, tables and bed etc. If you have tight space into your house then you can use this type of furniture. Some of these fit inside the construct of the table so you won't need extra space to keep these. Small size bed and sofa beds can save your space. There is multifunctional furniture available in the market so you can use it in the limited space.

Choosing the right color scheme

You have to be very cautious in color scheme so try to choose those colors which belong to same theme. You have to choose the same colors for the walls, fabrics, curtain and upholstery. Moreover if your flat or apartment has the same color scheme then it will give same color continuity. This continuity will provide long and wide feel. Warm light colors provide the open feel. You can manage the colors of wall and furniture with each other. This will blend with the space instead of contracting colors.

Lighting it right

It is very important to give the lighting effect to your house because this effect gives the several look to your house. In this regard most of the people mess up their houses. If you have the lighting understanding then it will give the open look to your house. You can also obtain a relaxing atmosphere by these lighting. Lamp and wall lighting will make your house large and open.
