Things to Be Consider While Buying a Rental Property for student accommodation by Carol Riley

Article published on March 20th 2012 | Business

Investing in student property is a growing concept in Edinburgh. Most of these kinds of properties are close to colleges and universities. This city offers world class education to the student, thatâ€™s why the students from all around the world come to this city for getting a world class education. Due to this tendency property in edinburgh is on high demand. If you have a student property then you can have several benefits because renting out a property to the students gives you a number of other paybacks. Whenever you are going to invest in such a property, there are several factors which you must keep in mind.

How to Buy the Right Kind of Property for Student Accommodation:

If you have a plan of buying a property in edinburgh for student accommodation then you should keep in mind several factors. If you have a plan to buy a bigger property, then you should ensure that there is at least a single bathroom for every five students. Another important thing which you also have to make sure that the cooking and food storage space is according to the number of people in the property.

If you want to buy a student property then you have another option to invest your money in a three bedroom house. By using some techniques you can convert it into a four bedroom house by converting the living/dining room into a separate bedroom. A great number of the students tend to get a property in the form of four to five students. A student property can be attractive for the students if it comprises of a self-effacing bedroom, shared bathroom, a kitchen and a shared lounge. Majority of the students wish to have a clean and well maintained property for their accommodation.

Find Out The Perfect Area:

If you are looking for a right area for buying a property in edinburgh for student accommodation then you can collect information about this from different resources like; you can talk to the local experts, the estate agents and university accommodation officers to have a fair idea of the locality. It is better for you to expend some time in the area to observe the town. A little survey among the students can be very useful as it will be helpful for you to know their need, likes and dislikes. The properties which are closer to educational institutions are very popular among the students. The properties closer to the bus routes and the town centre are also very popular among the students. On the other hand the properties which are situated in joyful and lively areas with busy night life are also chosen by students. As we all know busy and safe area would be the first priority of any one so same is with the students.

You Must Buy Property At The Right Time:

When you decide to invest your money to buy a property in edinburgh then you must keep in mind the right time of buying it, i.e. from mid to late September as by this time it will be ready to let. That would be a nice idea if you start looking for the property in April and complete it by August. If you plan it properly so you can carry out the main maintenance work and it will be ready to let.

Number Crunching:

You have to determine a reasonable rental income for your chosen area. One thing you should consider if the rental income will be enough to generate the asking price. Furthermore you must keep in mind, the amount of time the property will be empty, in student properties; it is mostly the summer season. There is another aspect of this property which is the maintenance of it, so you should think about the value of property and rental income. If you will consider all these factors then you can get a healthy profit fro this property.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/business-articles/things-to-be-consider-while-buying-a-rental-property-for-student-accommodation.htm - Article Side

Carol Riley - About Author:
Carol Riley is a marketing officer for Greenlet, property lettings website in Edinburgh. If you want more information on a edinburgh student accommodation, please visit a property in edinburgh.

Article Keywords:
student property, edinburgh student accommodation, edinburgh student flats, property in edinburgh, property to rent in edinburgh, edinburgh property

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!