Pune one of the metro cities in India had always been an education hub. Student passing out from Pune universities have breakthrough career opportunities and successful future. Many graduates, post graduates, professionals and other jobseekers prefer Pune city for jobs. Numbers of people come to Pune for education purpose thus increasing the needs for books. There are massive job requirements in publishing house for editing, designing and writing experience for the magazines.

Many leading businesses have its branch in Pune city thus increasing the job opportunities in each sector. Pune city had been a platform for freshers, professionals, technocrats, etc. Automotive and IT sector is in boom in Pune city so candidates having engineering and technical background are in great demand. Pune is loaded with full of job opportunities but it is really tough to get jobs in best companies of Pune since the number people seeking jobs is increasing every year. Recruitment and selection processes became a process of rejection rather than selection. One who wants job in leading companies of Pune should have unique skill sets, experience, educational qualifications, and knowledge about the sector in which the company is. Field jobs and marketing jobs are given to people who have no experience or little experience. Growth of IT industry is also increasing the job opportunities in the interrelated industry like BPO, automotive and KPO industry. Jobs in real estate business are increasing due to infrastructure developments in the city. Pune has job opportunities for people from various fields like management, engineering, medical, school and college pass outs from different streams, animation, graphics, B.Sc. and the list continues. Emergence of MNCâ€™s in Pune increased the job opportunities in all functions of business like production, human resource management, research and development, finance, marketing, inventory management, sales and distribution management, and quality management.

A fresher should first give preference for experience in the industry rather than package. Once you get experience in any field you can get better job opportunities with much better packages. Freshers should start their career in small businesses for getting job experience if they could not make to bigger ones. Small companies give much concentration on training fresherâ€™s while branded businesses prefer the experienced candidates to save the cost on training or just because they donâ€™t have time for conducting training programs for fresherâ€™s. Once people seek better jobs in Pune they prefer to settle their along with their families even if they go to some other countries for better career. There are never ending job opportunities in Pune only thing you need to have is potential to give your best for grabbing the opportunities. Consultantâ€™s advice that you should choose the jobs in those fields in which you are more interested because that will help you to bring out the best in you. This will help to increase your productivity at job.
