Article Side

Various skills required by an interviewee by JohnAlina

Article published on November 26th 2011 | Career

Constanta is a Romanian country near dobruja region that has population density of more than 715,151 with 101 per square kilometer. The growth of this country belongs to the number of tourists visiting every year. The employment ratio in Constanta is better and growing. People may find locuri de munca Constanta (jobs in Constanta) in various industries. The job areas in Constanta include chemicals & petrochemicals industries, food beverages, textiles, ship building, construction, etc. In addition to this people may also find more industries where they can work like mechanical industry, paper and the most important agriculture industry.

There are numerous ways to find particular job, with the help of internet it is very easy to find a perfect job of your interest. Numerous websites have evolved that helps in searching jobs and also help in making perfect resumes. If you are still a student or a fresher and still deciding your career then you can definitely visit a career counseling workshop. These counselingâ€™s help you to locate your interest and furthermore polishes your interest and develops job skills.

If you want to go for an industrial job, you require having some industrial skills, such as numeracy skills that include taking accurate measurements with the use of precise instruments. In addition to this an industrialist is also required to draw tables & specifications and the most important; the skill of critical thinking, it requires evaluating the conditions of machines with their components.

The various fields of industry where you can work are like rubber & plastic, water, metals, oil & gas, cement, thermal power and nuclear power.

You can also go for accountant jobs, there are many skills required for an accountant job, such as-

1. Basic financial skills

2. Mathematical and logic skills

3. People, interpersonal communication skills and teamwork

4. Teamwork and collaboration skills

5. Management and leadership skills

6. Theoretical skills based on accounting and finance knowledge

7. Analytical, creative and innovative thinking skills

8. Computer, intellectual and technology skills

9. Networking skills

There are some common skills, which everybody needs to have, such as-Communications skills (listening, verbal, and written), analytical and research, flexibility, adaptability and managing multiple priorities and interpersonal skills. In addition to this there are more skills, which are often checked by the interviewer while you go for an interview-

â€¢ Computer and technical literacy

â€¢ Interpersonal abilities

â€¢ Multicultural sensitivity and awareness

â€¢ Leadership and management skills â€¢ Planning and organizing â€¢ Problem- solving, reasoning and creativity

It is important for you to pursue all these skills to acquire a good job.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/career-articles/various-skills-required-by-an-interviewee.htm - Article Side

JohnAlina - About Author:
To more about a locuri de munca Constanta or a Locuri de munca Craiova and a Locuri de munca Galati.

Article Keywords:
locuri de munca Constanta , Locuri de munca Craiova, Locuri de munca Galati

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!