Opting for the right prom dress 2012 for the body shape is something that women should not overlook. Whatever the latest trends are all about, you need to pick out a style that makes your best features highlighted and shows off your most charming side in the best way possible. Some ideas are given to help your find your unique and flattering pattern according to your body type.

Apple shape

women with such figure usually features heavier waist. There is no doubt that the empire a-line prom gowns that can take off the attention from the waist should be landed on the list of the best choice. When it comes to the color, generally speaking, solid shades are ideal option. It is worth noting that ladies belong to this category should stay away from clingy tops or fancy fabrics. You had better select the material with a nice fall that doesnâ€™t hug your body.

Pear shape

The characteristic of women with pear shaped figures is that there is more weight on the lower part of body. In order to bright attention to the beautiful topper part of body and conceal the parts you are not proud of, you need to take the cheap prom dresses with vertical lines into consideration. For example, flowing A-line and princess will look great on you. It is easy to find that the clothes for the special occasion come in a variety of necklines. Strapless sweetheart neckline is your ideal for you who offer you a good chance to show off your perfect bust line and charming shoulders. To the contrary, v-neck is easy to make your shortcomings exposed. Dark colors should be worn for the bottom half and lighter shades should be used for the upper torso.

Petite

I believe that each girl looks forward to creating a taller look in the special occasion. Some simple ideas are helpful for you to enhance your look. The attire made of light fabrics is worth considering while you wonâ€™t look and feel the best in that made of heavy fabrics. Empire wear is easy to become a favorite in any petite girlâ€™s closet as the high waist line will lengthen the proportion of the body, making wearer appear taller and slimmer. The high heels are necessity and preferred as they will help to accent the beauty.

Bear in mind that the key is that you should balance out the proportions by choosing the prom gown that accentuates your unique personality and the best in you no matter what your body shape is. It is quite important when you are going to shop your desired style online as you donâ€™t have the chance to try it on. Happy the prom night!
