Popular men's jeans are central to many stylish looks, both smart and casual, so refresh your look for the new season with denim from River Island.

A classic style that can be worn with anything are slim or straight leg jeans – these are really versatile and can be dressed up with a smart shirt or worn more casual with a printed tee or sweater, depending on the occasion. It's worth investing in pairs in a couple of shades including darker and lighter washes so you don't end up wearing the same jeans to death. You might also consider some coloured denim – Olly Murs is just one celebrity who's been spotted wearing this look, an easy way to update your jeans for the new season.

For more relaxed, weekend style then slouch jeans, carrot or cuffed jeans are just the thing. These are both comfortable and stylish, perfect for those laidback days. Team yours with a hoodie and some high tops for a sporty and urban look. If you haven't tried them already, jogger or cuffed jeans are definitely a must-have to wear for a more fashion-forward alternative to joggers.

Despite common perception, men's skinny jeans are wearable and a viable choice of denim. Look to celebrities like Joey Essex who wears his with a plain t-shirt and leather jacket for an on-trend look that's surprisingly easy to pull off.

Whether you're looking for blue or black jeans, slim or slouch, you will find whatever men's jeans you need online at riverisland.com. Shop the collection online today and have your jeans delivered direct to your door.
