Stylize according to the occasion by Arvind Reman

Article published on May 29th 2012 | Clothing

If you notice in any party or event, there will be at least a couple of them who dress up to the teeth in order to impress the people gathered. And, you just envy them for their dressing style and all the attention they grab. What else can you do?

Many times like you, other womenâ€™s are confused with their dressing style. They are not able to figure out, what they should be wearing for a specific event. And, they end up donning something bizarre, which would get them into the centre of attraction but in a negative way.

Thatâ€™s the reason why you should be familiar with latest trends in fashion. Only if you are aware of the latest fashion, youâ€™ll be able to plan according to the theme of the event or party.

You can buy dresses online from a range of collection. But, before that you need to know for what you are buying it. Is it for a wedding, a social event, a get-together?

Here are some of the dressing options for specific occasions:

Wedding: All are excited when it comes to adorning yourself for a wedding. This is the time when you mingle around and flaunt your style. Therefore, you need to be at your stylish best. A black sequined dress can give a lustrous look and feel. But, if you are an introvert kind of a person, then you can opt for a subtle look with a floral designed women dress.

Birthday/ get-together: This is time when all friends and colleagues meet one another. So, if youâ€™re attending your friendâ€™s birthday or a reunion party then, you have a whole lot of options to select from. You can pick an uber cool t-shirt, which goes perfectly with your jeans. Or else, you can also go for a funky women dress, which runs up to your knees.

Social event: You canâ€™t walk in social events wearing some flashy and shimmering dress or not even in very casual attire. If youâ€™re planning to buy a dress, then itâ€™s a straight no-no. Something Indian and traditional would work perfectly. It would give a sense of belonging and allow for a subtle appearance.

Though you can buy dresses online, one thing that you need to keep in mind is the purpose of buying that dress. Next time when you make your mind for buying a dress or apparel, take some time to think over these points.
