Chris Lee, Vice President North America in mass circulation department announced that game, TERA so that most players have a keener interest in the game in North America server was officially opened on 14th free trial of seven days of activities.

Chris Lee, said: We want to open trial of seven days without activity for those who are curious about the players on the TERA Meanwhile, we also believe that as long as you play the game, you will remain in this game.

Starting today, TERA will expand the two forms of free activities to attract the attention of potential players, namely: first, players can live online video to understand the game, the second, the player is free to play games 7-day game to create their own characters, like how to play how to play, but only to create individual objects in a server 8, the maximum level to 23.

Chris Lee, the last also stated that the current players in the game an average time spent online per day for four hours.

At the same time, TERA will inaugurate the first patch. However, the patch is not, but a lot of content. First, this update will increase the system server PVE guild vs guild. Instructors Association may own guild stick the label pacifist or preparation, if the association is involved in the war, the newly added players will be notified.

Not interested in PVP? Do not worry, this patch, there are other content. Hands of the everyday tasks of Velika made an adjustment, the number of tasks required to improve slightly, but given the personal rewards will be significantly improved. BAM now upscale lodge-making materials, Level 13, with the name of a monster will have a higher probability of falling. It also open the entrance to the patch also fixes some bugs and help improve the quality of gaming experience in TERA.
