Chapter summaries are required when you are proposing job as a writer or an author. The editor usually wants to know further about your masterpiece by asking for several chapters of books before making decision of your destiny. To make it good, donâ€™t forget to enclose a synopsis. For the writer, writing down a synopsis could be a boring task but it is damn needed. To be accepted as professional non-fiction author, the synopsis takes significant role in the decision. Setting up chapter by chapter summaries is basically needed for fiction synopsis. Present tense is majorly needed for portraying the summary. In other words, the story must be told in actual ways.

Putting chapter headers (chapter 1, chapter 2 and so on) on your summary is helpful to arrange summary. In the end of process, you should remove the chapter headers to make it appear as real summary. The presence of chapter header is just to help you brainstorm ideas and make this task simpler. Donâ€™t forget to make it shorter. The shorter is the best. Sometimes it is effective to put protagonist side in the first paragraph to trigger curiosity of readers. Few sentences are enough to portray certain characters before continuing with chapter by chapter summaries.

In order to successfully impress the readers, an author must be smart in portraying characters within summary. The portraits should take spotlight on the purpose of characters to help readers understand what an author wants to say, especially conflicts in the story. Keep in mind, conflict is the best tool to draw attention of readers. It triggers curiosity to keep them read the story till the end. To help you check the value of your summary, read the main character in the book summary by chapter. Find out how clear it is depicted. Indeed the goal of main character should be clearly depicted and readers should know whether or not the goal is accomplished.

The goal becomes major thing to discuss in the book summaries chapter by chapter. But thereâ€™s one thing that canâ€™t be left behind. It is a conflict that underlies the imposing story of fiction book. These two aspects should be included when you are preparing to write chapter by chapter book summaries. Creating such imposing summary doesnâ€™t take simple efforts. You need to consider several aspects, including dialogs, conflicts, goals, characters and so forth. By noting these factors, you are stepping head into creating such impressive summary.
