Seabourn Legend in 1997 Movie by Harry Davies

Article published on June 13th 2012 | Cruises

Starring one the worldâ€™s most luxury cruise-liners, the 1997 action thriller movie Speed 2 features the stunning Seabourn Legend cruise ship.

Produced and directed by Jon de Monc, the film stars the beautiful and talented actress Sandra Bullock and her co-stars, Jason Patric and Willem Dafoe. Of course, where else would 20th Century Fox want to film this action packed thriller than on the decks of one of the worlds most luxury cruise ship?

The film crew manage to capture the Seabourn Legend in an attractive frame as it sails across the waters. However, the Sturgeon Atlantic, a different cruise ship, was used to build a false interior hull and bridge. For its more exhilarating part where the ship crashes into the pier, all special effects have been created by computer and a life size creation of the front of a ship powered by two diesel engines.

What can you really expect with Seabourn?

However, the perceived service from crew members on the film is nothing in comparison to the reality. Seabourn are 100% committed to providing an exceedingly high quality of service to its customers and the film does not portray the standard of facilities on-board Seabourn Legend or it's sister ships Seabourn Quest, Seabourn Odyssey, and Seabourn Sojourn.

As you step aboard any of the most elegant fleet of six ships, you will be taken on a sophisticated journey towards your desired destination. With an array of services on-board it is difficult not to sit back and relax and take full advantage of the Six Star cruise line. You can choose from an array of spa treatments and rituals that range from massages and facials to body treatments and wraps. Experienced staff are even qualified to arrange a personalised treatment or even create a gym workout that will help you to achieve your desired goal.

Again, not shown on the big screen, but the restaurants are truly an asset to the ship. From the veranda cafÃ© to the sky grill, your dining experience is filled with a verity of delightful meals. Seabourn is a proud member of ChaÃ®ne des RÃ´tisseurs, one of the worldâ€™s most prestigious gastronomic societies devoted to the art of fine dining. For true fine dining and fresh quality ingredients you can truly rely on Seabourn to provide this.

Whether you fancy taking a shore excursion in a hot air balloon, or would rather stick to land and take a stroll off-the-beaten path that leads to a bustling local market, each port provides a cultural experience for everyone. Even for a special occasion such as a romantic meal for two in Paris, Seabourn can guarantee to assist you in your land based adventures.

Sailing all over the world, you can be sure that Seabourn will provide you with a relaxing and enjoyable journey, stress free and no sight of Sandra Bullock or piers approaching at a fast speed (2).
