Article published on July 14th 2012 | Customer Service

Mop cleaning supplies have become an integral part of the janitorial supplies for one cannot consider cleaning to be fully complete without these supplies. You need the mops and the mop buckets to accomplish the complete cleaning process without difficulty and much waste of time. So, even the purchase too can be made easily on the online platform without having to leave the comfort of your home. Yes, Supply Line Direct is an online store that specializes in selling mop buckets and mop cleaning supplies of different brands.

Mop buckets are the most important of the mop cleaning supplies along with the mop itself. So, based on the size of the room or the expanse of the area that needs to be mopped daily one needs to shop for the mop buckets. Buying small mop buckets may not suffice the purpose as you will have to change the water frequently after it gets soiled. And once you have put water in the small mop buckets, there is every chance for the water to spill out making your cleaning chore tougher.Therefore, when you choose a bigger mop bucket, you can not only have convenient maneuvering of the mop stick in the bucket, there will not be any further waste of time cleaning the spilled water. When the mop buckets are maintained well you can rest assured that they will give you a long service and you will be able to perform your cleaning chore effectively. The online store also offers mop handles for selection when one is planning to buy any other mop cleaning supplies. A few are so effective that they conserve water and also keep the cleaning solution absolutely clean.

As mentioned earlier, depending on the kind of mopping work that needs to be performed you could zero down on different models of mop buckets. Supply Line Direct offers different types of mop buckets that come in with rich features and make cleaning very easy. They come in with value added features and make the mopping trolley a perfect janitor cart. There are different brands that are available at the store and hence the final choice is always yours. But, considering the pros and cons and going through the literature that is provided on the website helps in making the right choice.

WaveBrake is a brand that offers high performance mopping system and makes cleaning more effective and easier too. The mop buckets are available in different sizes of 26qt, 35qt and 44qt. The unique patent pending technology in which they come in reduces the splashing of water while at the task. This kind of cleaning will provide the people a safer environment to work in and also cleaner floors and highly efficient mopping system in place. There are the side press mop buckets and also the industrial combo that are found to be effective in cleaning with the mop. When you opt for a reputed brand you can be assured of the quality of the purchase you have made and you will be left satisfied more for every bit of money that has been spent during its purchase.
