

Article Side

Quick Know How on Shipping to Congo, shipping to South Africa, Shipping to Istanbul by Martine Thomas

Article published on January 16th 2012 | Customer Service

Did you encountered problems when shipping to Iraq, Congo, Kuwait, Iran, Mexico, or Istanbul? Were these problems really hard to crack and as the result you have to pay more money to international shipping company? Shipping to Ghana, Kuwait, Iran, and Istanbul, Mexico, Libya, Iraq or anywhere else would need practicable knowledge of the cargo and freight shipping company. Hiring international cargo and Freight Company will provide you easiest way out for shipping to Mexico, Ghana, Libya, Iran, Iraq, South Africa, Congo, and Kuwait, but apart from this, you should also have the good knowledge of international shipping in general. In this way, you will be able to tackle the hassles related to shipping and freight movement at your personnel end, which would indeed be a commendable achievement.

Shipping to Congo: Relevant Facts

When you are shipping to Congo, it is very significant that you produce before the customs authority the Certificate of change of residence "Attestation Reservation de cable" Employment letter from company. It is also very important that all the inventory items should be written in French and signed in person by the customer. There will be no customs charged if of used household goods, provided they are not being shipped in surplus amounts. All the shipment will be inspected by the customs department and you have to make sure that no items or household goods should miss the inventory when shipping to Congo. The dutiable and limited goods which are shipped to Congo include electrical items and furniture items and all these should be more than six years old. If the goods are not six months old, custom duties and taxes will be charged. Home computers will also be subject to customs duties and taxation.

Shipping to South Africa

Shipping to South Africa requires that you show to the customs authorities all relevant documents related to Residence Visa, Residence Permit, Work Permit, and temporary Work Permit if of Non Resident South Africans. In addition, you should also complete Settler's Declaration Forms (in triplicate) after arriving in South Africa. There is also need for letter from employer which would verify that you are moving to South Africa for contractual job. Please take note that if you are producing "PBO" - packed by owner or "mice." "Miscellaneous, it will not be accepted by the customs officials. As far as vehicle shipping is involved, make sure that your vehicle is not a left hand drive vehicle as it is not allowed in South Africa.

Shipping to Istanbul

If you are shipping to Istanbul, as if of shipping to the international ports, keep in your mind that all the documents are complete. The inventory should also be complete and the desired language. Make sure that you hire only the reliable and experienced international shipping company when shipping to Istanbul.

For shipping to Libya, or shipping to Kuwait, or Shipping to Ghana, shipping to Mexico, or shipping to Iraq, or shipping to Iran, it would be all the more necessary to go through the details listed on the reliable international shipping website. <http://www.shippinginternational.com/>

Article Source:

<http://www.articleside.com/customer-service-articles/quick-know-how-on-shipping-to-congo-shipping-to-south-africa-shipping-to-istanbul.htm> - Article Side

Martine Thomas - About Author:

The author has experience in a international shipping and writes exclusively on the shipping to South Africa company, a shipping to Congo, and shipping to Libya.

<http://www.shippinginternational.com/>

Article Keywords:

International shipping, international shipping companies, shipping to Congo, shipping to South Africa, Shipping to Istanbul

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!