A Trip to Paradise Island Well Within Your Budget by Aanchal Gupta

Article published on April 19th 2012 | Destinations

Singapore stands as one of the desired holiday tourist destinations in the world. This country is very diverse as it is home to many languages, cultures, religions and people. As a result it attracts many tourists all over the world. A typical Singapore tour package covers all important places to be visited in Singapore within a maximum of a weekâ€™s time. There are some Singapore packages for shorter duration as well. Depending on your holiday schedule you can choose the right package with the right Singapore hotels to stay.

Some of the important places that are likely to be in any of the Singapore tour package you choose are Sentosa Island, Art Science Museum, Universal Studios, ION Sky and Salt Grill. Sentosa Island is just around 20 minutes drive from the city. It is a resort island which consists of pristine beaches, world class attractions, sea sports, golf and retreat. Different sets of people have different interests and Sentosa Island has different activities to capture everybodyâ€™s interest. The main attractions of Sentoda are the Imbiah Lookout, Skyline Luge Sentosa, Butterfly Park, and Insect Kingdom. You really cannot leave out visiting the national symbol of Singapore â€“ the half lion, half fish structure called Merlion. You can play your favorite volley ball sport at Siloso Beach and visit Wave House Sentosa.

For a unique experience, you can also ignore the regular Singapore hotels offered by the Singapore Packages and book some exotic resorts at Resorts World Sentosa. The Island is a world in itself with all this and much more. St. James Power Station, Mt. Faber, Sentosa Play Pass and Sentosa Rider make for some very interesting visits. Universal Studios is the only Universal theme park in South East Asia. It boasts of state of the art rides such as Madagascar, A crate Adventure, Shrek 4-D Adventure, Revenge of the Mummy and Jurassic Park Rapids Adventure. These adventures are sure to give your Singapore tour package its highest dues. The Art and Science Museum is designed uniquely in the shape of lotus, thereby gesturing a welcome sign to all the visitors.

Singapore packages are quite incomplete without the mention of a few other places as well. You have got to visit the Arab Street, the best place to shop for leather bags, goods and garments in Singapore. You can have a glimpse of the Parliament and the City Hall when you visit the Colonial Quarter. There is also the China Town consisting of the temple known as Thian Hock Keng, where you get to see some of the traditional tasks being performed even today. There are a lot of modern buildings but China Town still holds its old worldly charm. If you prefer to visit some gardens, you can visit the Botonical Garden, the Chinese Garden and the zoo.

You can choose to book your Singapore Hotels which are most centrally located so that you do not waste much of your time travelling from the Hotel to the desired places. A lot of tourist information is available on the net itself and you can use all that information to plan for an enchanting and refreshing holiday this summer vacation for your family.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/destinations-articles/a-trip-to-paradise-island-well-within-your-budget.htm - Article Side

Aanchal Gupta - About Author:
a Singapore tour package can be customized as per your requirement. Whether you decide to stay in a Singapore hotels or resorts, you will be receptive of the best of hospitality in Singapore. That is one good reason why a Singapore packages remain etched in all those touristsâ€™ memories who have visited this place.

Article Keywords:
Singapore tour package, Singapore packages, Singapore hotels

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!