Backwaters Honeymoon Packages Kerala by Von Miller

Article published on May 4th 2012 | Destinations

Kerala packages from Delhi are common amongst honeymooners and backwaters are one destination where they all want to head. Kerala packages from Delhi offer an exotic experience after Delhiâ€™s busy and full of traffic life. Here you will find lush greenery and peaceful backwaters. The village life set next to the backwaters is a lifetime experience. One can stay in houseboat which is an experience in itself. You can come across a different culture altogether while cruising. The best time to take backwaters honeymoon packages Kerala would be from October to March, yet one can go to Kerala anytime of the year.

There are innumerous honeymoon packages Kerala, but the one which is most famous is that of mystical backwaters, probably because it is not crowded and gives you fun and laid back life altogether. The palm trees along the backwaters, the breathtaking sunsets from the houseboat, ducks all over and the captivating moonlight are perfect to add to the romance.

Kerala packages from Delhi covers the following:

Alleppey

Known as the Venice of East, Alleppey is the favorite backwaters honeymoon packages Kerala. There are innumerous canals here and the beauty at its best with coconut lagoons, paddy fields, ducks shepherding and fishermen busy fishing. One can see people making coirs as you step out of the houseboat and enjoy the traditional Kerala cuisine, especially the sea food.

Kochi

Kochi which is popular as the Queen of Arabian Sea is also a popular Kerala packages from Delhi and one can experience magnificent sunsets during cruises.

Kumarakon

Situated on the bank of lake Vembanad, this place can be best described as the silent beauty of nature. just a decade back Kumakon was discovered and it has not been still heavily crowded with tourists ensuring that its virgin beauty is still unexplored. It is the perfect place when it comes to sailing which offers breathtaking view of mangroves, coconut groves and paddy fields. Nature lovers can also explore the Kumarakom Bird Sanctuary.

Kollam

Swapnadesham or Kollam is another popular honeymoon packages Kerala tour famous for once being the center of cashew nut trade. One can still find the same beauty here as thousands of years ago and the place offers same serenity as earlier.

Kozhikode

this is situated towards the northern Kerala and is one of the unexplored backwater destinations. It has a lot to offer tourists including the Kadulundi Bird Sanctuary and Jalotsavam or water festival.

Article Source:

http://www.articleside.com/destinations-articles/backwaters-honeymoon-packages-kerala.htm - Article Side

Von Miller - About Author:
Author is an associate editor for a Kerala Packages from Delhi. Get all possible information about a Honeymoon Packages Kerela. we also provide tourism packages with wide range of Holiday Package deals anywhere India.

Article Keywords:
kerala packages from delhi, honeymoon packages kerela

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!