Bangkok, the capital city of Thailand, is one of the most thriving, active and buoyant city in Asia. With every feature of an international cosmopolitan city, Bangkok has a lot to offer to every visiting tourist. Packages for Bangkok are considered to be ideal for any person seeking a complete holiday package. You have unlimited selection in shopping, a whole list of religious places that you can visit for spiritual peace and tranquility, a huge number of amusement parks and an abundance of restaurants, bars and pubs where you can chill out after a long day's excursion. A week in Bangkok will completely rejuvenate your senses and reinvent your vigor for life. Owing to all these factors, packages for Bangkok are always in high demand all over the world.

When you choose a Bangkok tour package, make sure that you include a couple of days of detour to Pattaya, which is very close to the capital city. Travel in Pattaya is full of pleasant surprises. Well known for its beaches, Pattaya is also a rich cultural heritage site and has a wealth of natural diversity. From ancient Buddhist monasteries to world famous crocodile breeding farms, Pattaya has it all.

Bangkok and Pattaya are cultural melting pots of the South Asian region, as you will notice when you travel in Pattaya and Bangkok. The culture here is a mix of Chinese and ancient Thai traditions. Be it the food or the daily lifestyle of people, there is a beautiful blend of different cultures that is worth experiencing. The culture in these places is not restricted to the Wat temples and Buddhist monasteries; it thrives in every household. It is reflected in the rich family values of the people and their extremely warm hospitality. The ever smiling and friendly people of Thailand are the reflection of cultural, traditional and spiritual richness of the country. Bangkok tour package gives you an insight into the flourishing cultural diversity of these places, so that you when you return home, you are enriched by the cultural experience of these exotic oriental lands.

Packages for Bangkok and Pattaya should also include a visit to the ladyboy cabarets which pull hundreds of people every day. Dressed in dazzling costumes, these transsexuals perform with such elegance and grace that the audience is up on its feet clapping and applauding the extremely talented performers.

The food in Thailand is another point of mention and something that you must experience during your travel in Pattaya and Bangkok. Known for being spicy and flavorful, Thai cuisine uses a number of herbs that are excellent for the wholesome wellbeing and health of a person. Green, red and yellow chilies are used in abundance along with lots of onions, garlic, fish and soy sauce, shrimp paste, fresh coconut, fragrant jasmine rice and mushrooms. A blend of all these ingredients along with the ever present fresh herbs creates delicacies that will bring you back to Thailand over and over again. No Bangkok tour package is complete without special time allotted for sampling the mouthwatering Thai cuisine.
