Best Four London Theatre Productions by Kuldeep

Article published on December 16th 2011 | Destinations

London is famous for many things. Most will possibly think of big ben, the Houses of Parliament and also the iconic red bus, which has been associated with our nation's capital for so many years. Another iconic place is London's West End which has a range of bars, clubs restaurants and (you guessed it) theatre productions, which have many fans travelling from all over the globe. Some theatre goers will utilise concierge services to make their booking to see 1 in the many productions in style, or get essentially the most tickets to well-known productions at short notice.

If you have by no means been to London's West End and you are thinking about giving it a go, then right here are some of our favourite shows you can catch appropriate now:

â€¢ The Wizard of Oz - First on our list is often a standard from the most famous musical theatre composers of all time; Andrew Lloyd Webber. The production is an adaptation of the 1900's novel from L. Frank Baum's 'The Good Wizard of Oz'. The West End show is one particular of many adaptations; there have also been pantomimes, amateur productions, films, television shows, books, comics and games. The story follows a girl referred to as Dorothy Gale who is swept away to a magical state in a tornado and embarks on the mission to see a Wizard who can aid her get home.

You can catch the show at the famous London Palladium that may be effortlessly out there through public transport. The venue has many other attractions locally should you are really looking to make a night of it.

â€¢ The Lion King - Next on our list is 1 of Disney's most famous and established animated films; The Lion King. The musical is about a lion cub that may be tricked in to thinking he has killed his unique father, leading him to abandon his household and pack through guilt. The Lion King is often a visually fascinating show, which enables you to get up close and individual with some of the actors and props.

â€¢ Wicked - This award winning production tells the really well written story of an unlikely yet deep friendship in between a couple of girls who meet as sorcery students. The musical follows the girls' a variety of paths and how decisions they make shape their future. Wicked is really sensational and has earnt a variety of awards and positive reviews from peer groups, generating it the most well-known productions inside the West End.

If this production has caught your eye, then you can catch it live inside the Apollo Victoria Theatre, London.

â€¢ We Will Rock You - Finally, we leave you with the most famous and iconic musical ever to hit London's west end; 'We Will Rock You'. This epic musical is co-produced by a couple of members of British rock band Queen and British play writer and director Ben Elton. The story is set 300 years inside the future, in which individuality is rejected just before a lone "dreamer" seems who can fulfil a prediction which will permit the return of rock 'n roll. The production features the biggest hits from Queen, generating it a have to see for any die-hard fan.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/destinations-articles/best-four-london-theatre-productions.htm - Article

Side

Kuldeep - About Author:
Book a Lion King Tickets online from a the lion king tickets website.

Article Keywords:
lion king,disney,london theatre

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!