Cheap Bali Hotel Saves You Cash by Joy Shiela

Article published on January 2nd 2012 | Destinations

Bali is one of the vacation spots that everyone will die to visit but can't necessarily have enough money if tourists are fixed on getting the most luxurious accommodation offered but they could still go to this dream paradise if they are willing to compromise. When you really need to go out and see what Bali has to offer and yet not have to pay all your money on hotel rooms, why not go for cheap hotel Bali? These cheap hotels can be found all over the place and the best part is that while they are indeed cheap price wise, you will never guess that they are budget hotels when it comes to the amenities and the service which they provide you. The five star hotels are indeed more luxurious but these budget hotels are comfortable enough to make your stay in Bali as enjoyable as could be.

If you go for cheap hotel Bali, this implies that you will have more money to spend on the things that you want to spend money on. The money you save from accommodation can then be spent for shopping Batik or other Bali souvenirs to take home with you. Go for some shopping and obtain Batik for take home. There are other cool finds that serve as memorabilia like Bali shirts, mugs and thimbles.

After several hours spent in shopping, you can find yourself relaxing in the sand, get some rest as the blue waters calm you to slumber so you can go dolphin watching when you awake. Dolphins are commonly seen around as they fancy showing of their flipping skills to expecting travelers. Another thing that you can do that will involve taking a dip in the water is ether scuba diving or some snorkelling. If you want to go for a scuba dive, it is strongly recommended that you avail of the diving lessons offered as it requires some form of skills but snorkelling is easier that you can do without any formal training. Travelling to Bali does not need to be costly if you avail of cheap hotel Bali.
