Enchanting Isles of Huelva by Frederick Pollard

Article published on June 25th 2012 | Destinations

Huelva has many beautiful isla or isles. These are small islands that are around the main land with beautiful sceneries and idyllic beaches; making them a delightful choice of holiday location.

Isla Canela

The island of Canela is located between Guadiana River and Carretas River. The bridge of Ayamonte connects this island to the Iberian Peninsula. There are 7 kilometers of beaches and dunes at Canela Island.

The beaches of Canela Island boast of fine white sand to lure many visitors every summer.

The beaches are close to the Marismas National Park which is actually on Isla Cristina y Ayamonte. There is also a well maintained marsh land which is home to many species of rare and exotic birds like the spoonbill and avocet. One can enjoy Isla Canela on foot, horseback or by bicycle to explore the nature trails from Ayamonte. A delightful boat trip over Carreras River will add on further satisfaction to oneâ€™s holiday on this island.

Canela Island offers many types of accommodation to suit the budget of the tourists. Those who want luxury and comfort during their holidays have no problems considering one of the many exquisite design hotels here.

There is a marina and an 18-hole golf course to enjoy besides the many leisure and water sports offerings. The waves are ideal for kite surfing and windsurfing.

Isla Canelaâ€™s main industry is fishing with a Roman set up salted fish production since 300 years AD.

Isla Cristina

Christina Island is charming with its beaches close to marshes and pine forests making it a very green environment. The marshes have been turned into a natural park which houses many types of feathered species. There are 12 kilometers of beaches at Isla Cristina which offer white sand and a Blue Flag status. The beach amenities are modern and of top quality which attract large crowds during the summer. The port at this island is a hive of activity with its fresh sea catches which makes it ideal to enjoy fresh sea food.

Isla Cristina is one of the best places to view beautiful sunsets of reddish tones reflected on the waters.

Islantilla and La Antilla

These beaches are in between Lepe and Isla Cristina with luxury hotelsÂ and a great golf course. There is sunshine almost throughout the year with the offering of a tantalizing gastronomy offering and natural landscapes that make this a true paradise.

Islantilla has pine trees beckoning the Atlantic Ocean and outstanding garden landscapes along its beaches.

Playa de la Antilla is quieter than Islantilla with more visits by the locals. One can enjoy the excellent virgin beach Flecha del Rompido which is protected by the authorities.
