

Article published on December 21st 2011 | Destinations

With replete romantic feelings in the air, freestanding islands from the rest of the world, sky high mountains, mind blowing beaches and cool valleys strewn throughout, it's no wonder why California is ranked as one of the top destinations for honeymooners and romantic partners. The place is a preferred host to many of the newlyweds, lovers, and married couple who are planning for an anniversary celebration. This state is the perfect place for fun lovers, adventure seekers, for relaxation and an upgraded level of elegance and luxury. It gives us an unforgettable touring experience with its high-tech hotels, romantic restaurants, classic candle light dinners, secluded beach fronts, up to serene environment.

Most of the times people extend their vacation at-least for a day or two from the one they have scheduled for due to the excellent experience they grab from the state. Securing your home while you are in a vacation using a service like ADT Home Security will surely help you in going for a peaceful extension on the other hand. Getting back to the point, a Californian honeymoon is no less than thrilling. Several couples from all over the world flock to this wonderful destination because of its numerous worth visiting spots. The accommodations are not only cozy but are very modern as well. Walk by the beach during the break of dawn or as the sun sets. Go swimming or hiking as you wish. Anything actually goes for the California vacation. Its climate and coastline are both superb. Central California is a coastal area that is perfect for those partners who want to spend their honeymoon or romantic getaway in tranquility. Some of the popular activities to do are sailing, hiking, kayaking, surfing, and beach combing. For the wine tour, the Sonoma and Napa Valleys are the perfect spots to visit. Do the wine touring by May or June or by September or October. Spa vacations are accommodated in Los Angeles and the desert vacations in Palm Springs. Romanticists are sure to love and sink deep in the beauty of San Diego.

Tons of best California vacation packages are available out there for you. For an adventure-filled vacation in this hot place, you may choose from an array of vacation packages that combine outdoor adventures with the recreational activities. You can go horseback riding, skiing, river rafting, golfing, trekking, swimming, and a lot more. For all of these, you can visit San Francisco. The accommodations range from Hotel Monaco, Huntington Hotel, Hotel Majestic, Ritz-Carlton, and other romantic lodgings. If you prefer the laidback scenario, get to Bodega Bay, Sausalito, Mendocino, Sacramento, Carmel, Yosemite, and Eureka. The must-see attractions are sure to entice you. Romantic lodges, resorts, inns, and cabins are likewise scattered in these places. You may try making reservations at the Fairmont Sonoma Mission Inn and Spa and the Griffin House Inn.

Make a perfect preparation for a Wonderful Honeymoon Vacation in California. If you have decided that you want to go and visit California for your honeymoon, you should start with your preparations as early as now. The first thing for you to do is that of checking things online. There are numerous California vacation packages available for the honeymooners that you may consider.

The Internet actually hosts varied options. Hotel accommodations also range from the budget ones up to the most luxurious ones. Talk to a travel agent. If you want to ease yourself of the burdens, working with a travel agent is sure to provide you with everything that you need. Travel agencies take charge of all the bookings to and fro. All you need is to pack your suitcase and be at the airport for your departure. Check out the itineraries. You can always choose which outdoor and recreational activities you like best. A California vacation is every honeymooner's dream. Hence, it pays to get a first-hand experience!

Article Source:

<http://www.articleside.com/destinations-articles/enjoy-the-romantic-air-in-california.htm> - Article Side

Mark D - About Author:

Being a freelancer indulged in writing and blogging, I think about writing my views and the wonderful experience I had in California for a long time. I hope I have accomplished my mission in a right time of celebrations. I had an extended vacation for about a week in California and didn't worry about my home safety as it was secured with a ADT Home Security.

Article Keywords:

california honeymoon,dream trip,adt home security

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!