Exciting Bike Tours around Barcelona by Albus Jackson

Article published on July 18th 2012 | Destinations

There are many ways to sight Barcelona as there are many interesting sights to view. While most tourists may prefer joining a chartered air-conditioned van or bus to travel around Barcelona, others may choose a more exciting and different choice; cycling.

Cycling is a great way to travel around Barcelona especially when the weather is pleasant and cool. It is great to feel the cool breeze on oneâ€™s face while cycling through the lanes and streets of Barcelona.

Advantages

There would definitely be different and more interesting landscapes with a bike tour around Barcelona than in a bus or van where highways and main roads are traveled. The bike ride would be at the right pace of the cyclists dressed casually and comfortably in shorts and T-shirts.

The tour guide would be experienced in handling the small group of bikers; there would be frequent stops to avoid over tiring the cyclists. Information on each sightseeing location would be conveyed by the tour guide in the language preferred by the cyclists.

The biker group can travel at their preferred pace to enjoy the excursion. They can choose to stop longer or shorter at any spot to enjoy their day excursion.

Tour details

There would be different departure dates that would suit the convenience of the tourists. There would be a specific departure point that would be convenient to the tourists. This is usually the Plaza Sant Jaume which is easy to find and accessible to most tourists.

The cycling tour concludes after 5 hours with a tour shop as the last stop. This will allow tourists to consider many possible souvenirs from Barcelona.

The tour for bikers usually departs at 11am and ends at 4-5pm. While most of the biking tours are conducted in English, other languages can be requested depending on the group size and advance notice.

There is sufficient insurance coverage for all bikers in any professional bike tour around Barcelona if handled by professional tour operators. The bike tour price includes insurance for the biker, bicycle rental, child-seats, helmet and guide.

The ferienhauser in spanien bike tour price also includes most of the sightsâ€™ entrance fees. Gratuities are optional depending on the generosity and satisfaction of the bikers towards the tour guide. Meals are usually not included in the tour price; neither are snacks nor gifts part of the tour package although some tour operators may offer a small tour gift to each tour participant.

Hotel pickups are usually not included; hence, guests would need to make their way to the departure point.
