Spain offers many exciting spots which one can check out in a short tour. These short tours are usually conducted on a daily basis for 2-3 hours per tour to introduce the best of each spot of attraction to the tourists. They allow tourists to get a feel of the place before putting more time in their preferred spots.

National Parks

One of such favorite spots for short tours is the natural beauties or landscapes of Spain. These include the nature parks and landscapes. One of the more popular nature parks is DoÃ±ana National Park that is about 15,000 hectares wide. It is the home of many exotic fauna and flora in this region.

For only 110 â‚¬, this national park tour would include a hotel pick up and drop off as one travels in comfort inside an air conditioned four-wheel vehicle. The vast park tour takes about 3-4 hours to view the many animal species across the park. Migratory birds may give the tourists some excitement at the right time of the year.

Another national park is the MatalascaÃ±as where a diverse type of marsh land exists.

Pilgrimage tours

Another natural beauty tour in Spain is the El Rocio pilgrimage tour. This is a very solemn fiesta that happens every year in El Rocio town. Hundreds of devotees and spectators throng the pilgrimage path and town to perform their religious obligations.

There are many beautiful natural sights along the way as one travel from one village to another until the final destination is reached and heavy celebration goes underway throughout the night with music, dancing and fireworks. Such a tour is usually included in the Natural park tour as the pilgrimage path takes the similar route.

Straits of Gibraltar

For only 115 â‚¬, those who join the Straits of Gibraltar day tour would enjoy the lovely scenery along the way until the final destination is reached. There would be a guided tour of El PeÃ±Ã³n National Park along the way with a good view of the â€œCuevas de San Miguelâ€• caves which are an astounding natural wonder.

A good spot would be from the â€œPunta de Europaâ€• to view the caves as well as the strait of Gibraltar. There are also monkeys of Gibraltar to be viewed on a good day. One would have some free time in enjoying the breeze and open views as well as the city near by.
