Article published on July 20th 2012 | Destinations

Blues Festival of Copenhagen is held at the end of summer. The aim of the festival is to get a perfect balance between the traditional and modern expressions in blues. Blues cover several extensive styles. Familiar, old â€œblues veteransâ€• are always there with a sequence of new names. So start looking for cheap airline deals at the end of this summer.

The night of culture is an annual event and is held on the 12th of October. It offers over 500 cultural events for adults and children as well in just one night. The whole city comes alive with adventures and entertainment for children and adults. To have an extraordinary experience of the cityâ€™s cultural life, book cheap tickets to Copenhagen and attend the Culture Night. Over 200 museums, exhibition halls, churches, political organization, galleries and several other art and culture institutions remain open from 6 p.m. in evening to midnight. Most of the Night of Culture events are organized at this evening. The entire city becomes part of the culture night with a wide range of big and small cultural institutions, thus depicting diversity in the cityâ€™s culture. With their Culture Kit, one gets free admission to most events and totally free of cost public transportation whole night. Most libraries, cultural institutions and Train stations have it on sale.

The city hosts a ten day annual Jazz event, Copenhagen Jazz Festival every July. The event is open from the first Friday of July and goes on for almost ten days. The city comes alive every summer with Jazz in the city squares, streets, Jazz clubs, shopping malls, parks and concert halls of Copenhagen. The ten wonderful days of Jazz Festival sees the best performances by great musicians, famous Jazz performers with the likes of Sonny Rollins to Scandinavian artists, solo singers and international superstars. The event also presents various themes which represent alternative approach to the program. The event draws over 80,000 guests every year. There are also children friendly Jazz at Lindevangsparken. So board a flight to Copenhagen and attend the famous Jazz festival of the city this year.

From many years numerous thrilling bands have been performing at Copenhagen Irish festival. The festival started over 30 years ago. Everyone, volunteers and unpaid committee members work hard during the event. Their love for Irish music nourishes the festival every year. So if you are an ardent lover of Irish music, board a cheap flight to Copenhagen and attend this amazing festival of Irish music. Besides music, the festival also organizes annually lectures, art exhibitions, films and workshops.

Copenhagen Photo Festival provides an international platform to modern photography in the state of Denmark by creating an environment for research in photography in various aspects. The festival presents major Danish and modern photography in art and cultural institutions, schools and galleries. It attempts to make people aware of the meaning of the photos around us, what are they based upon. So get cheap plane tickets to satisfy the Photography buff in you. It provides a platform to explore photography in an all aspects, for theoretical debate, for national and international world of art, where photography aficionado can explore todayâ€™s photography.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/destinations-articles/explore-the-extraordinary-culture-of-denmark.htm - Article Side

Aleena Moore - About Author:

Aleena Moore is an associate editor with Fare buzz.Fare buzz offers exclusive information related to a Cheap Flights To Copenhagen , and a Flight Deals. With Fare Buzz, book the best discounted a Business Class Seats as easily as 1-2-3.

Article Keywords:
flights to copenhagen, business class seats

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!