Doha, Qatarâ€™s capital city has a strong economy which is built on its oil and gas sources. One of the other factors behind its growth is that it is also in line with the other tourism cities like Dubai and Oman. People from all over the world, visit Doha to spend their holidays and this is the main reason of Qatarâ€™s booming tourism market. Doha, being a tourism destination and business centre of Qatar, has become the centre of the vast and profitable hotel industry other than expensive hotels Doha hotels are also available at cheaper and medium range that provide a full range of customary treatments for the customers. These hotels include restaurants in the lobby, swimming pools, Jacuzzi, hair saloons and also the space for arranging any type of event or activity; for tourist packages, many hotels offer discounts where you can be exempted with various service changes or any other kind of charges. In this way, you can save money with the option of pre-booking of hotel. Famous Doha hotels are as follows;

â€¢ The Sheraton Doha Resort and Convention Hotel

â€¢ Swiss-Belhotel Doha

â€¢ Holiday Villa Hotel

â€¢ Residency City Centre Doha

â€¢ Ramada Encore Doha

â€¢ W Doha Hotel and Residency

All these hotels are providing a number of amentias and extra services offered by the staff and all are inclusive of rates. These Doha Qatar Hotels make travel easy and accessible.

The people, who stay in hotels or villas during their holidays or business tour, experience Doha shopping as well and it is an amazing experience for the tourists. The shopping malls in Doha are fully modernized and centrally air-conditioned that are increasing day by day with the rapidly increasing demand of theirs by the tourists. The most popular Doha shopping mall is the City Centre which was opened in May 2001 consisting of dozens of native Qatari outlets where singles are not allowed to enter. The latest and high standard for modern shopping is Villaggio which is located near Hyatt Mall which is totally based on Italian theme malls. One of the best places to shop is the Souq waquif where you can enjoy amenities like food court, groceries, baked foods, meats, electronics, jewelry and other daily routine items. The Mall, D Ring Road in Doha is opened for everyone.

Doha schools are also a concerned sector for Doha. When people finally decide to stay and live in Doha, one of the main decisions is to select an academy or school for their school going kids. As compared to the public schools, private schools in Doha are the best option to go for. A high level of studies is given in private schools with strict rules and regulations. American School of Doha, Qatar Academy, and Al Jazz Era Academy are some examples of most popular and schools in Doha.

Tourists coming to see the attractions and unique features of the Doha and Qatar are largely giving the revenues of foreign businesses as well as the visitors on business.
