â€œIf you could visit only one state in India, where would you like to be?â€• this question was addressed b one of my friends. I thought for a brief moment, and answered â€˜Himachal Pradeshâ€™ without hesitation I had heard a lot about this fantastic craggy state, and really wish to visit here, especially its hill resorts which offer heavenly beauty coupled with scrumptious environmental conditions.

Located within the arms of brawny Himalaya, Himachal Pradesh domiciles some of the most enticing hill stations in India. From superb hiking at Kurfi to incredible snowfall in Manali, and family-friendly Shimla to romantic milieu at Dalhousie, Himachal Pradesh boasts vacations of varied natures, and hence invites thousands of travelers from different parts of the world. Himachal tourism is far-famed due to its scintillating hill stations, spreading throughout the state. With breathtaking scenery and exciting adventures, these destinations cast a magical spell and leave all the visitors becharmed. The top hill stations one must visit during Himachal tour are given below:

Kufri: One of the most beautiful destinations in North India, Kufri attracts a large number of travelers who love nature and/or adventures. About 19 km from Shimla, Kufri is a must-visit spot for trekkers, hikers and skiers. Pony and Yak ride, luxury stay in a resort and wondering across its green plantations are some experience to delight in Kufri.

Dalhousie: The best thing to do in Dalhousie is to do nothing and enjoy the beauty of this place. Gorgeous colorful valleys, cascading waterfalls and green forests in this region are truly a feast to the eyes. Being nestled along the River Ravi, Dalhousie offers wonderful opportunities for river rafting. Colonial building and low-roof houses of British era are also the premium attractions Dalhousie tour.

Kullu Valley: Wedged in the lap of the great Himalaya, Kullu is an ultimate holiday destination in Himachal Pradesh. Stunning beauty of this valley attracts nature-loving tourists from far and wide. During winters, it seems like an oasis with lofty mountains, tranquil lakes and dense forests being covered by white layers of snow. Kullu is a paradise for adventure buffs too.

Apart from that, Shimla, Kinnaur, Palampur and Dharamshala are some other destinations in Himachal Pradesh known for their magical charms. Attached to Himachal Pradesh, the wonderful state of Jammu & Kashmir is also a great place to visit for nature-loving tourists. One can take a trip to Srinagar or a tour to Leh to explore the real magic of this mountainous state. Nowadays, a number of travel companies organize tour to these destinations, and ensure visitors having trouble-free journey. They offer a variety of packages customized according to oneâ€™s own needs and budget. Searching online, one can find a suitable package for Himachal tour or tour to Leh.
