Himachal Pradesh the State with Eternal Beauty by Manju Chandra

Article published on March 19th 2012 | Destinations

Himachal Pradesh the state in India is bestowed with eternal natural beauty and it lies in the heart of the Himalayas. It is blessed with many natural beauties like swift rivers, gushing lakes, varied landscape, mighty mountains and exotic wildlife. It is a state which has many hill stations namely Shimla, Manali, Dalhousie, Dharamsala and others too. The five main rivers that flow through this state are the Ravi, Chenab, Beas, Sutlej and Yamuna. Himachal Pradesh is also known as the â€œApple Stateâ€• because the first cultivation of apples was done here, Asiaâ€™s largest fruit processin is also located here. Shimla the capital city of Himachal Pradesh is a beautiful hill station for the tourists to spend their holidays.

Himachal Pradesh is a beautiful state in India and is famous for its extensive hill stations which are the major source of tourism here. Tourists from across the places travel to Himachal to experience the never ending natural beauty and its cool atmosphere. Himachal tourism takes you to the interesting touristsâ€™ places to visit. Besides natural beauty this place also has many temples which are considered to be sacred by the Hindus. The lakes in Himachal are so mesmerizing and appealing that it attracts many tourists and visitors throughout the year. Some of the well known lakes are the Rewalsar Lake, Khajjiar Lake, Parashar Lake and Chandartal Lake.

Himachal tourism is also a very good place to visit for the tourists who is keenly interested in adventure sports because the state is famous for its adventure activities like Trekking, Skiing, Camping, River rafting, Paragliding, Mountaineering and Para gliding. It is a lively State and offers the tourists with many fairs like Lavi fair, Sipi fair, Sainj fair, Phagli fair, Minjar fair and Bhadoli fair. Tourists can arrive at any time of the year to spend their holidays and it depends upon their own leisure time. All the seasons of this place are beautiful and appealing and it has its own beauty and charm.

There are 12 districts in Himachal Pradesh and all the districts offers something or the other for the tourists and the visitors. Himachal tours take you to the mysterious land and its features which will surely have a magical effect on the tourists. It is also known as the â€œdev bhoomi â€œbecause the ancie temples of the Pre historic times are all scattered throughout the state, People from near and far away places specially the Hindus visit this place as it is considered to be sacred for them. While on the Himachal Pradesh tour one can visit Manu temple of Manali, Bhagshunag temple of Dharamsala and the sulphur spring of Manikaran which is the favorite destinations among the tourists. This place is specially added up in the list of religious destinations but apart from this it also offers natural beauty and the adventure activity for the tourists.

Himachal Pradesh with its gracious hill stations, natural beauty and adventurous sports offers ample opportunity to the tourist to spend their holidays in every possible way, it will make your holiday memorable one which will always be cherished for a lifetime.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/destinations-articles/himachal-pradesh-the-state-with-eternal-beauty.htm - Article Side

Manju Chandra - About Author:

Manju Chandra is an eminent analyst and writer in Travel & Tourism related topics. She has authored many books on tour guide for a Himachal tours . For details visit a Himachal tourism .

Article Keywords:
Himachal tourism, Himachal tours

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!