The country where cricket is a religion and the cricketers are no less than demigods, where the half buses and auto walas would teach the likes of Michael Schumaker what speed is; a country where the guest is considered to be an avatar of the Almighty himself; a country where the noise of Bollywood jhatkas make the headlines more often than not and so on, has indeed a lot more to offer than being labeled or typecast all this.

The fact that today, the country is at the centre stage of the world, needs no proof. Be it the field of medicine or science, the ideals of culture or values or trade and commerce, India is increasingly making its absence felt and presence counted. A quick glimpse of the newspapers or the television set can give you a fair idea about its rising popularity and the countryâ€™s involvement and participation in world affairs.

And all this has lead to more and more people visiting the country. The Indian subcontinent is a popular tourist destination for many foreigners. The country is visited by flocks and flocks of people all round the year and has grown as a name all over the world. It is no more a country of snake charmers and increasingly becoming an important landmark on the world map. And taking all these factors into consideration, the tourism fraternity has geared up like never before. The tourism fraternity along with the hospitality industry is trying its best to satiate the requirements of the herds of foreign tourists and travellers who come here and cash in on the craze as long as it lasts.

If the records of the Indian hotel booking are checked, you may end up with results that are quite interesting. More and more people are putting their foot forward as far as Indian tourism is concerned and availing the option of Indian hotel reservation prior to their stay in the country for added convenience and a hassle free affair. The records of Indian hotel reservation or Indian hotel booking would also go on to show a number of other things. It would give an insight to the changing tourism patterns, the type of people who come to visit the country, the frequency of their visits, their tastes and preferences, their economical background, position in the society, etc.
