Incredible Indian Tourism

by Sara Hasan

Article published on December 21st 2011 | Destinations

India is vast country in the continent of Asia. The country of India is known for its diverse culture and traditions from all the states which contribute to the country's rich cultural heritage. There are many famous tourist destinations in the world, India is one among them. Millions of people from all over the world come to holiday Indian tourism. India is a country which has exhilarating wild- life sanctuaries to name a few are Bandhavgarh National Park, Ranthambore National Park, Gir Wildlife Sanctuary, Corbett National Park and Sundarbans National Park. In India one can find beautiful beaches in the state of Maharashtra, Chennai, Kerala and Goa. Goa is one of the well-liked tourist places among the people.

There are many tourism options in India which will never dissatisfy you. One can visit the breath-taking and pleasant hill- stations such as Shimla, Nainital which has the famous Corbett National Park, Ooty, Mussourie, Mount Abu and many more hill-stations one can visit. In accumulation to the lively hill stations, there are a number of peaceful and calm environment retreats and places of significance to visit for a nature follower. If one is passionate to see Indian festivals and ethnicity than one must plan to visit the states of Rajasthan, Gujrat, Uttar Pradesh and Bihar. If one is a nature lover in that case a visit to the state of Jammu and Kashmir is neccesary. Jammu is known for its charming landscapes, prehistoric temples and mosques. A trip to Dal Lake in Srinagar is a must.

In modern times, Ladakh has evolved as a foremost center for escapade tourism. This region of India is known as â€œmoon on earthâ€• and has marvelous mountains and subterranean gorges. In the centre of the country is the state of Madhya Pradesh also called as the Heart of India. There are numerous historic buildings, gracefully engraved temples, stupas, forts and palaces of the royal families are spotted all over the state. The world renowned temples of Khajuraho are also to be found in this state.

The Ajanta and Ellora caves in the state of Maharashtra are the two UNESCO World Heritage sites and are greatly accountable for the expansion of Indian tourism. The North-Eastern part of the country comprises of the states of Nagaland, Sikkim, Assam and Manipur. Darjeeling also recognized as Queen of hills is a most visited tourist destination here.

The state of Tamil Nadu to the south of India is the most visited tourist places when it comes to foreigners. The state has many great temples such as Madurai Meenakshi Amman Temple, Brihadeeswarar Temple, Sri Ranganathaswamy Temple. Scenic Waterfalls and National Parks are situated across the state of Tamil Nadu. The new state of Uttarakhand also called as the abode of the Gods is famed for its snow covered mountain, opaque forests, glaciers and a number of pilgrimage places such as Badrinath, Kedarnath, Gangotri and Yamunotri also called as Char-dham.

In reality, each section & province of the nation India has its own magnitude and more than a few places of tourist interest to acquire their attention. Certainly your tour to India will be an inimitable and enjoyable travel incident which will last for more than a generation to come. So definitely plan to visit the implausible and diversified India.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/destinations-articles/incredible-indian-tourism.htm - Article Side

Sara Hasan - About Author:
Sara Hasan has deep interest in writing informative articles on Travel and Tourism in India. Also given her words to a portal for a India Tours where one can find info on a India Tour Packages, a South India Tours and other destinations of India. Explore: india-tours.net

Article Keywords:
India Tours, India Tour Packages, South India Tours

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!