India Golden Triangle Tours to Delhi, Jaipur and Agra Cities by Dev Kumar

Article published on February 28th 2012 | Destinations

The one thing that differentiate Golden Triangle Tours from all other India touring circuits is that it makes every moment and penny worth you spend while visiting three most important cites of India, and every. This is a tour which gives joy, inspiration and fun that you feel overwhelmed at the end. Golden Triangle India Tour packages may seem limited in their coverage to some people, but don't worry Golden Triangles tours are certainly not limited in their scope. They bring in much more joy and happiness than you could have imagined before, and offer you many more beautiful tourist places than just the Taj Mahal.

Golden Triangle in India that include Delhi, Agra and Jaipur cities is the best way to start your journey if you are Planning a vacation trip to India. These are most toured destinations in India by domestic and foreign tourists.

By visiting these wonderful cites during the Golden Triangle Tour one will see huge difference in language, tradition, food and culture of the people living in 3 different cities.

ShineGoldToursIndia.com, one of the most reputed tour operator company in India offers a 6 days 5 nights tour package to the Golden triangle cities in India. Generally this tour starts from Delhi with a well experience local guide provided by SGT India. During Sightseeing in Delhi one will get to see beautiful temples, marvelous forts, gardens, tombs and other buildings of great importance such as India Gate, Lotus Temple, Qutub Minar, Red Fort, Chandni Chowk and Qutub Minar, Jama Masjid, Raj Ghat, Gandhi Smitri and Humayunâ€™s Tomb.

Journey's next destination city will be the city of great historical importance and that city is none other than Agra. Beautiful Agra City is generally known for the architectural beauty called Taj Mahal and it is also a symbol of love. This Mughal monument, Taj mahal is also included in list the seven wonders of the World and experience of watching Taj Mahal in the moon light is something one will never forget. Taj mahal was built by Mughal Emperor Shahjahan in the remembrance of his beloved wife Mumtaj Mahal and it took many years to complete. Tajmahal and Agra city sightseeing is the most enjoyable part of golden triangle India trip.

Third destination city of the Golden triangle tour is the pink city Jaipur in Rajasthan state. Jaipur city is famous for its forts, Gardens and beautiful palaces. Rajasthan is also called land of Rajput's, famous for their courage. Jaipur is also great place for shopping and eating, people here generally interested in silks and jewelry. Sightseeing in Jaipur include many places to explore in Jaipur such as Hawa Mahal, Jantar Mantar and Aamer fort.

Delhi Agra Jaipur tours offer you completely different experiences of live in the Mogul, Rajput and British eras. They all have represented India and have great influence in India. Wonderful structures and ancient monuments that are available for public viewing will enthrall you, there is ample scope for you to incorporate other experiences that take your fancy. This is surely the tour for you if you are looking to make the most of the precious time you have set aside for a wonderful holiday. Golden triangle India tour package gives full satisfaction to tourists and moments they will never forget all their life.

Article Source:

http://www.articleside.com/destinations-articles/india-golden-triangle-tours-to-delhi-jaipur-and-agra-cities.htm - Article Side

Dev Kumar - About Author:
Shinegoldtoursindia.com Provide tailor made a Golden Triangle Tour India to visit these three great Indian cities. Their 6 days 5 nights tour gives sufficient time for a sightseeing in Agra, Delhi and Jaipur.

Article Keywords:
golden triangle india, golden triangle tour india, delhi, agra, jaipur

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!