Jaisalmer Hotels - Living Like Kings by Killabhawan

Article published on November 29th 2011 | Destinations

Many Jaisalmer hotels are former forts or palaces. The hotels have managed to retain their rich cultural past as well. Many hotels in Jaisalmer offer excellent packages for tourists during the festival period, especially during the Desert festival period. Hotels in the city of Jaisalmer provide unmatched luxury in terms of food, accommodation and even dÃ©cor. Some of the most luxurious hotels that are present in the city of Jaisalmer are The Gateway Hotel Rawalkot, Mirvana Nature Resort, The Royal Court, and Hotel Nachna Havelli amongst others.

The main attraction of these luxury hotels is their style of architecture and rich opulence. Since most of the old palaces and havelis have been converted into hotels, they still retain the princely dÃ©cor from the past. Tourists can catch a glimpse of the way the Indian royalty lived when they once stayed at the various palace hotels in Jaisalmer. These high end hotels have all the modern requirements such as conference halls, swimming pools, internet facility and spas. Palace hotels have large spacious rooms that are equipped with modern facilities such as televisions.

Tourists will be able to experience true Rajput culture when they are staying in these Jaisalmer hotels and many of them also organize various events such as dances, plays and other cultural programs for the tourists. Desert safaris and camel rides are popular among many tourists and some of the hotels in Jaisalmer arrange these facilities as well. Camel safaris in to the desert can be an exciting experience. Many hotels around the city have interesting architecture and the hotels themselves are a treasure trove of items from the past. Many of them are set amidst sprawling gardens and fountains and the overall experience can be a phenomenal one.

These luxury palace hotels and boutiques also provide pick and drop facilities from the airport and railway station for a fixed price. This is designed to make the entire stay as comfortable and smooth as possible for the tourists. Many of the Jaisalmer hotels are located on the edge of the desert and they provide a wonderful view. Catching sunrises and sunsets can be a breathtaking experience for the traveler.

One can find that style of design of the Jaisalmer hotels is rich. There are a few distinct hotels in the city of Jaisalmer two of the main ones are Hotel Imperial and The Serai. There are a wide range of options for the traveler in the city of Jaisalmer to stay in.

The Hotel Imperial is one of the hotels in Jaisalmer that has a laid back and cozy style that attracts travelers who wish to relax and unwind. The hotel provides a personalized service that is sure to fulfill all the needs of the traveler. Guests are treated like royalty and someone is always at hand to provide service. The catch phrase of the hotel is that a 'guest is God'. Jaisalmer hotels such as the Imperial are located very close to both the airport and the railway station.

Tourists are provided with the option of arranging pick up and drop facilities as well. There are deluxe rooms, super deluxe rooms and executive rooms that are available at the Hotel Imperial. The hotel has a conference room and money changing facilities as well. The roof top restaurant of the Hotel Imperial provides a stunning view of the Badal Vilas and Golden Fort. They serve Indian and continental food as well. Other facilities include a doctor on call and 24 hour hot and cold water facilities.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/destinations-articles/jaisalmer-hotels-living-like-kings.htm - Article Side

Killabhawan - About Author:
Jaisalmer is well known for the rich princely heritage and the opulence of the Maharajas has been transferred into the a Hotels in Jaisalmer as well.

Article Keywords:
Hotel killa bhawan, hotel in jaisalmer,jaisalmer accomodation, hotel jaisalmer, heritage hotel jaisalmer, hotel in rajasthan,jaisalmer fort hotel, fort hotel, jaisalmer hotel, desert hotel, killa hotel, jaisalmer fort hotel

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!