Jeddah Travel Agency Tours to Enjoy by Lek Boonlert

Article published on November 25th 2011 | Destinations

Most of the Jeddah hotels will have information on a wide array of tours that service the city. Although exploring the city with no set agenda is a popular way to see the city, there are a few tours that should be considered for your travel itinerary. The tours take in some of the more significant sights in the city such as the many street markets or souqs, historical landmarks, and the site of the Old City. We suggest you consider one of the following travel agencies to book your tour through.

Aliveza Travel and Tours - based in Jeddah, you can find a number of different outbound tour packages and a variety of other city tours. From the Bangala Fish Market to the famed Jeddah Aquarium, you are sure to find a satisfactory tour package with this company.

Explorer Tours - this company is based in Jeddah but focuses more on tours to other areas in close proximity to the city. They offer camping tours and Red Sea cruises as well as tours of a number of Jeddahâ€™s more historical sites.

In addition to the above, you will find numerous tours that cover the following venues:

- Day trips and city excursions

- Sailing and water tours

- Cultural and theme tours

- Multi-day and extended tours

- Balloon and helicopter tours

As mentioned previously, the hotels in Jeddah will have plenty of information regarding the numerous tours that are available in the city.
