Kerala tour packages: Kerala is a pleasant wet world of breathtaking beauty by Ajay Kumar

Article published on January 3rd 2012 | Destinations

This article has been penned to provide you a glimpse of the true beauty of Kerala in its natural glories. Kerala honeymoon packages have been wooing honeymooners from ages offering a whole new world of lushness & greenery. As a holiday seeker you must avail the Kerala packages for a complete holiday experience.

Kerala is a breathtaking corner situated in South India in the vicinity of the turquoise Indian Ocean and on the lap of the majestic Nilgiri Hills. Kerala with its backwaters & hills has an enamoring effect on every mind. Its beauty is so unfathomably deep that you canâ€™t help but get forlorn in this part of India. The serenity of the backwaters, the sight of the fishermen sailing out far into the sea and the ubiquitous presence of the silent lagoons will evoke nostalgia. Kerala holiday packages open the doors into a perfect world of Godâ€™s own country. The bliss & ecstasy seeping into this corner makes for a perfect romance. Newly wedded couples head to this exquisite corner under the Kerala honeymoon packages to witness the grand spectacle that the magician nature has conjured up for its audience.

Indeed, it appears as if a wizard has wielded his wand to create a fantastic, fabulous world with the rippling rivers on one hand and the cascading waterfalls on the other. The green hills rising resolutely to kiss the white clouds offer a breathless panorama to the place. It would be a sin if you miss out on the Munnar Hills which have some rapturous view points and postcard scenery. Under the Kerala tour packages, you can walk out into this hilly world and experience bliss amidst the quaint hills. The climate is also pretty mild & pleasant that calls for a perfect honeymoon romance.

Kerala, being located in the coastal region of South India, has a long coastline and houses a number of beaches. But unlike the wild beaches of Puri, these are sedate & serene. The gigantic palm trees crowd the shores filling them with tall shadows and heart-rending breeze. You can ask for nothing better as a tourist!

Keralaâ€™s mystical charm lies in its exquisite lagoons and backwaters. They are dotted throughout the state and present such a picturesque beauty that you will keep begging for more. Kerala tour packages (Kerala packages) also allow you to sink into some delicious local food like the Idly & famous Dosas. Besides, a hop into the wildlife sanctuaries wonâ€™t do you any harm! Yoga, spas, parlors, restaurants and hotels offer both comfort & luxury under the honeymoon in Kerala packages. The culture is something that will infect you while the memories are those that you can take back home with relish.
