The beauty of Legian Beach is that no matter what brought you to Bali on holiday, there will be an activity that will make your holiday perfect.

The adventure holiday

If your idea of a great holiday is one where every day makes the adrenaline course through your veins, then Legian Beach can deliver. Due to the lack of a coral reef offshore from Legian Beach, surfing is both exciting and safe, making it ideal for all abilities including first time surfers. There are plenty of places to hire surf gear so you wonâ€™t need an extra seat on the plane for your board, and there are a number of knowledgeable surf instructors happy to show you the ropes and enthuse about their coastline.

The beach holiday

When you go on a beach holiday, even the most active holidaymaker has to take advantage of the time away from everyday life to relax on sandy beaches. Legian Beach is perfect for this very activity, from the soft sand underfoot to the wide accommodating beaches, bordered by the perfect sea to help you cool off when it all gets just a bit too warm. Hotels in Legian Beach are perfectly situated, often mere moments away from these idyllic shores.

The voyage of discovery holiday

Travel broadens the mind and there is no way to better achieve this than by experiencing the country you are visiting. To make the most of the area, travellers are advised to come off the beaten path and away from the tourist centres and see the real Bali. To enable people to see the real Bali, there are several four-wheel-drive vehicle tours organised where small groups can visit the rural villages and meet the inhabitants of Bali.
