London a complete family holiday

by Carolyn Ann Clayton

Article published on December 9th 2011 | Destinations

There are many cities in the world that are considered as favorites for holiday makers. London is certainly one among them. London attracts a lot of tourists every year. In this article I will try to touch upon the various activities that can be done in London. While in London you can do water sports, spend a good evening enjoying a nice cultural or theatre show, sight seeing of both man made and natural wonders, enjoy delicious food and last but not the list you can also spend some good time shopping.

Londonâ€™s Thames River and the various water activities make it a great holiday destination. There are lots of water sports and activities that can be enjoyed at London. The activities range from kayaking, rowing, speed boat rides, fishing, etc. A lot of visitors come to London during the rowing festivals like the great River race.

If you have a real fascination for wildlife and you want to experience natural beauties. Then London is the place for you. To start with ZSL London zoo, here you can enjoy the fascinating experience of watching different species of animals enjoying a good time in their natural surroundings. The zoo has a team of specialists who take care of these animals. The tourists can also go for a wild life safari at night and enjoy the forest life. Daily shows are arranged in the zoo. Ensure that you do your bookings before you visit the zoo. London also has many natural parks and places of great scenic beauty. Try to plan your trip so that you can spend sometime the Westfield Park, Dovehouse green, Roman Bath. You can be rest assured that you will have an unforgettable experience.

London is city where you can find great pieces of architecture. The Buckingham Palace, Big Ben, The London Bridge and London tower are a few to name. The unique structure of these buildings attracts tourists from all over the world.

London is known for its world class departmental stores. Debenhams, Fortnum & Mason and Fenwick are some of the departmental stores in London where the tourists can have a great time shopping. For a shopping experience that will be light on your pocket try the shops the shops at Kensington High Street and the Oxford Street. The theme parks in London are quite fascinating. They are equipped with great rides and the kids have great fun there. To name a few are Diggerland, Coral Reef Waterworld, and the latest is the Land of Vikings.

I hope this will help you plan your trip to London holidays better. These are the various interesting options that can be tried while in London. Have a memorable stay at London.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/destinations-articles/london-a-complete-family-holiday.htm - Article Side

Carolyn Ann Clayton - About Author:

For a great a Budget London Hotel try Kensington West, which is a great a Kensington accommodation with affordable prices.

Article Keywords:
london bridge,natural parks, london

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!