Article Side

Loving Barcelona on Bikes by James Purefoy

Article published on June 14th 2012 | Destinations

One of the most popular means of sightseeing Barcelona is on bike. The half-day bike tour has received tremendous thumbs up reviews since its inception. It is a great way to view Barcelona and learn of its history, culture and tradition along the way.

There would be fun and socialization on a half-day Barcelona bike tour. One gets to improve their health with the good exercise on this tour. Participants would be accompanied by an experienced English-speaking biker guide.

For a mere 2200 euros, one can experience a most unique and informative sightseeing adventure in Barcelona for half a day. New acquaintances can be secured as one joins the half-day bike tour unless a personal group is available.

A half-day bike tour is a great way to see and appreciate Barcelona!

Tour overview

There are many options to this interesting bike tour around Barcelona. One can choose a morning departure or an afternoon departure. Every bike tour would be accompanied by a friendly biker guide leading the group through the city streets safely while pointing out some amazing sights of Barcelona.

Stops are made frequently to absorb Barcelona's beauty and tranquil atmosphere. This bike tour of Barcelona is suitable to all tourists; singles, couples, family or groups can opt for a biking experience while holidaying in Barcelona. This half-day cycling tour over Barcelona is ideal for all ages without being strenuous. A relaxed pace is kept with no hills or mountains to conquer; stops are frequent for photo taking and briefing of the sight of interest.

Tour highlights

The half day cycling tour kick starts with a brief history of Barcelona at the gathering point for moving on to collect the suitable bike at the tour shop. When properly equipped, the cycling group would be taken through various interesting sites around Barcelona; these include Placa Sant Jaume and Placa del Rei; Ciutadella Park; Barcelona Cathedral; La Sagrada Familia; Arc del Triomf; Toros Monumental Plaza; Vila OlÃ-mpica; Port Vell; Barceloneta beach; El Borne; and many others.

One of the favorite stops in this bike tour is the time of leisure at the outdoor beach bar near the beach later in the tour. This is one of the coolest places to relax with a cool drink after the cycling and sightseeing while mingling with fellow bikers.

The warm and alluring Mediterranean waters lie close enough for an inviting swim; hence, cyclists are reminded to bring along their swimwear for a delightfully refreshing dip in the ocean.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/destinations-articles/loving-barcelona-on-bikes.htm - Article Side

James Purefoy - About Author:

Spain offers numerous opportunities and select for all popular regional vacations : a ferienhÃ¤user Estartit, casa costa brava, and the most beautiful destinations i.e a ferienwohnungen in spanien.

Also read my blog at : a James Purefoy's Blog.

Article Keywords:
ferienwohnungen in spanien, ferienhÃ¤user Estartit, ferienhaus spanien, ferienhÃ¤user an der Costa Brava

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!