Owing to its unique geographical features, astonishing traditions & cultures and an equable climate year-round, Kerala is one of the most sought after holiday destinations in India. Situated in the southern tip of Indian subcontinent, this tiny state is endowed with an incredible beauty of nature, and hence has long been a favorite hunt for nature lovers and honeymooners. A long shoreline of Kerala features many tropical beaches, which offer serenity and scenic beauty unmatched to anywhere else. Getting through tranquil Kerala backwaters is the best way to explore the real charms of the state. It would take you through unbelievable scenery and enchanting flora & fauna. Moreover, spending time on Keralaâ€™s beautiful hill stations gives an overwhelming joy amidst true lap of nature.

If tourism in Kerala is talked about, itâ€™s impossible not to mention its healing Ayurveda, which is believed to be the oldest healthcare system in the world. Kerala possesses an unbroken tradition of Ayurveda that has been enjoyed by both natives and foreigners. People seeking any sort of disease, both physical and mental, get wonderful treatments in Kerala. Today, Kerala is perhaps the only state in the country where Ayurveda is practiced with absolute dedication. Most of Kerala travel guide books suggest that the winter season from January to March is the best time for Kerala holiday, but for those seeking for Ayurvedic therapies, monsoon time between June and August is ideal.

Where to visit while on holiday in Kerala? Well, it depends upon the nature of your vacation. Nevertheless, Kerala has a long list of destinations which are renowned for their unique allurement. To begin with, Kovalum beaches are ideal choice for honeymooners and fun-loving tourists. Located just 16km from the Trivandrum, it has been a dreamland for vacationers being a perfect fusion of sun, sand and surf. One can enjoy a range of water-sports like sunbathing, swimming, scuba-diving and windsurfing at Kovalam beaches.

For those who wish to savor old world charm of Kerala, visit to the capital city Trivandrum is fruitful. This ancient city has a great number of ancient monuments, which are worth visiting for history admirers. Some alluring attractions of this marvelous city include the Padmanabha Swami Temple, Kuthiramalika Palace Museum, the Napier Museum and Sree Chitra Art Gallary etc. Alleppey, also known as Alappuzha, is famous for backwater cruise, while visit to Thekkady provides an opportunity to explore amazing Kerala wildlife. Apart from that, Munnar hills, Cochin, Waynad Hills and Kumarakom are other attractive tourist spots in Kerala.

Being a premium tourist destination, Kerala boasts quality accommodation and transportation arrangements. All tourist destinations in the state are well-connected through roads and offer the tourists quality stay with all modern facilities. Nowadays, planning for Kerala holiday is quite easy, as a number of tour companies provide packages for Kerala tour. No matter whether youâ€™re buying a Kerala honeymoon package or package for Kerala holiday, you can find it searching over Internet.
