Mesmerizing Provence â€“ Within Reach and Proximity

By Carolyn Ann Clayton

Article published on December 6th 2011 | Destinations

In the heartland of Maritime Alps lies the southern region of France, popularly known as Provence. In the name of sheer natural beauty coming to life, Provence has a lot to offer. For the lovers of coastlines and the seas, there is Calanques â€“ a 20 kilometers long coastline of Provence, known for inlets and cliffs.

If you have a flair for spreading landscapes, the Garrigue is an enchanting watch. The limestone soils thanks to the Mediterranean basin render a dream like feel and look to the entire scrubland. The daunting Junipers and Kermes Oaks spread across the length of Provence provide it that French connection â€“ much sought after.

Provence is a place in France, which stands as a true testament to the beauty and appeal of the French countryside. Think about what your housing facility would look like, being styled alike Provence. This French countryside styling is all about bringing those colors to life in your homes. Those vibrant landscapes full of pastel shades of khaki, brown, fawn, green and mustard are what define Provence. Hence, you should always aim for getting your house accessories doing justice to these colors. The colors such as purple, golden, green and yellow bring the true effects of Provence to your rooms and facilities.

The next tip about Provence home styling is the use of the signature Provence sightings. Go on to Google a few pictures of Provence and you shall see lavender and sunflower fields, stretching across the landscape. You are vouching for a Provence themed home styling for such look. Thus, when you go shopping for accessories for your home, keep in mind to get these prints and complementing items in your shopping cart.

A very characteristic of Provence is the comfort factor. It is the core the utility aspect of your home or facility. Be sure to have provisions of styling the utility to make the dwellers feel comfortable and at ease. This will also go on and make them appreciate the theme and the styling of the house.

Installing bistro curtains on the windows would also be a nice idea. This shall give your home that authentic French feel, keeping Provence alive within your home and preventing the magic from going away, with a glance outside the window. Make use of bright and vibrant natural colors and shade for these curtains. Provincial tablecloths and curtains are cent percent cotton made and this is what shall do the justice to the theme as well. Nevertheless, you now also have the option to use Teflon anti stain curtain and tablecloths, available with those characteristic Provence prints and styles. Overall, these are a great way of bringing Provence come to life in your rooms and homes.

Provence is the true reflection of ever flowing artistic lifestyle. Bring it to your life!

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/destinations-articles/mesmerizing-provence-within-reach-and-proximity.htm - Article Side

Carolyn Ann Clayton - About Author:

Boutique Provencale offer a huge range of a Provencal tablecloth and a french tableware which will give any home that French look and feel.

Article Keywords:
provence home styling,home styling,provence home,themed home styling,provence themed home

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!