Romancing the Hills, Beaches and the Mist in Kerala by Rupesh Kumar

Article published on December 5th 2011 | Destinations

Kerala is a beautiful wonder of nature, blessed with alluring features that will astonish you, invigorate you soul, fill colors and paradisiacal beauty in your married life. It is the land of gods, Godsâ€™ own country, and the very land chosen by the Great gods themselves. Kerala offers a wide array of options to the tourists to choose from its incredible package. Kerala is one of the top 10 paradises found on earth by the National Geographic traveler. Kerala is the most idyllic location to spend your honeymoon in owing to its breathtaking beauty and jaw dropping diversity of topography that provides the tourists with the opportunity of experiencing the delight in staying in various lands.

Kerala has it all from lofty mountains to the extended beaches, from unspoiled corals to plush mangroves, from dazzling backwaters to the leisure beach resorts, from rejuvenating Ayurvedic treatments to the spoiling cuisine and much more. Kerala is meant to be for the lovers with its adorable beaches, clandestine hideouts, rolling lush green plains and intoxicating fragrance. It is situated on the Western Ghats is surrounded by the mighty Arabian sea on west and Karnataka and Tamil Nadu on other sides. Itâ€™s location on the Western Ghats has endowed it with great climate and geological diversity which in turn makes it an irresistible destination.

Begin your Kerala honeymoon tours with your stint in Kochi and Thiruvananthapuram, the gateway to Kerala. Walk down the streets, wander off and discover the carnatic beauty. Pay homage to the temples of Malabar; do not forget to visit the Palaces at Sree Padmanabhapuram, Forts at Bekal, Palakkad and Thalassery, and the hill palace in Kochi etc. Get onboard a kettu valam and enjoy cruising over the wonderful backwaters of Kerala. The backwaters, very unique in its formation and unique in its location are only found in Kerala. The intricate network spiraled to form wondrous mystical waterways out of the remote villages and hideouts, the backwaters are the only way of discovering the hidden beauty of Kerala. The plush mangroves collected in bunches on both sides is just heavenly and being onboard a boat cruising steadily on the bewildering waters amidst hauntingly beautiful serenity is one of its kind experience.

The enchanting hill stations that depict a perfect divine scenario are other features of Kerala that will keep you busy with the beauty. Discover the misty plains, lush plantations and the lofty plains of Kerala only in the wonderful hill stations of Munnar, Idukki, Vagamon, Wayanad, Ponmudi. Give yourself a break and learn some about the nature as well in the tremendous parks and sanctuaries such as Periyar tiger Reserve, Wayanad Wildlife sanctuary, Silent Valley National Park etc. Last but not the least, the best deal about Kerala honeymoon is undoubtedly its beguiling beaches. The Kovalam beach, best known for being a hippie epicenter earlier and now for its gratifying parties, is a wonderfully clean beach to seek a sunset at. Visit the largest sand beach in Kochi and get gaming at the Alappuzha and the Kollam beach. Take a dive into the wonderful Kannur Beach.

So, donâ€™t keep counting, Plan your tailor made trip and visit Kerala on your honeymoon.
