Singapore â€“ a Delightful Tourist Spot to All Ages

Ajay Kumar

Article published on April 10th 2012 | Destinations

A perfect blend of natural beauty and man-made enchants, Singapore is a premium holiday destination in Southeast Asia. Cultural extravaganzas, modernity and quality lifestyle in the city are worth exploring. Read this article to know some interesting facts about this Singapore.

Singapore is Asiaâ€™s smallest yet the most dazzling country. It combines manifold cultures, high-quality lifestyle, fascinating shopping, pulsating nightlife and a tropical climate year round, and thatâ€™s why allures thousands of travelers from across the world. Astounding beach resorts, interesting wildlife and alluring modernity in the city always leave its marks on tourists. Really, this marvelous city is an attractive tourist destination in Asia that gives all its visitors a delightful holiday experience.

Some Interesting facts about Singapore:

â€¢ Singapore is one of the smallest countries in the world, itâ€™s in fact an archipelago made up of 63 small islands that spread over just 682 sq km. However, in term of modernity and lifestyle, this tiny city/state is nowhere behind the big Asian countries like India and China.

â€¢ Majority of Singaporeâ€™s population speak English and Chinese, but none of these languages is its national language. Malay, which is used by just 15% Singaporean, is its national language. Itâ€™s the language in which National Anthem is written and commands are given in Military.

â€¢ It may be funny but true that majority of Singaporean people are born in October.

â€¢ The Singapore Flyer, with an elevation of 165m, is the largest observation wheel in this world.

â€¢ The Night Safari in Singapore is the first of its kind of Zoos, which remain active in dark.

â€¢ The Fountain of Wealth in Suntec City Singapore is the largest fountain in the world.

â€¢ Singapore is known to be spic & span, and even chewing gum is an offense in the city. Also remember that the possession of narcotics is a serious crime.

Singapore is melting pot miscellanea of many cultures. Chinese, Malay and Indian are the main ethnic groups that live here harmoniously. While wandering around these communities, you would surely be amazed buy their distinctiveness. Owing to its multi-ethnic nature, the city/state obviously has a population that practice varied religions including Buddhism, Islam, Hinduism and Christianity.

Major Tourist Attractions

People on Singapore holiday find an array of tourism attractions to explore. From bustling beaches to lively gardens, and interesting zoos to lively markets, the city boasts a splendid range of tourism attractions to cater the travelers of all profile. Premium tourist attractions in the city are:

â€¢ Sentosa Island beaches

â€¢ Haw Par Villa Tiger Balm Gardens

â€¢ Singapore Zoo

â€¢ Night Safari

â€¢ Jurong Bird Park

â€¢ Japanese and Chinese gardens

â€¢ Merlion Park

â€¢ Singapore Flyer

The Best time to Visit: The city/state features a pleasant weather year-round, so anytime is good plan your Singapore holiday. However, the winter session around Christmas and New Year is considered the best time to come here. But if youâ€™re a foodie or a shopping buff, plan your trip in July when Singapore Food festival is held and markets in the city offer lucrative discounts on purchase.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/destinations-articles/singapore-a-delightful-tourist-spot-to-all.htm - Article Side

Ajay Kumar - About Author:
Writer of this article is currently associated with Hungry Bags, a leading travel portal offering the travelers with customized a tour package to Singapore, a Singapore package tour for a delightful a Singapore holiday.

Article Keywords:
places to visit in asia, holiday destinations in asia, singapore tour package, singapore packages

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!