Singapore â€“ a Tropical Paradise on Earth

By Ajay Kumar

Article published on May 10th 2012 | Destinations

Singapore is strategically located in the southern tip of Malaysian peninsula. Being on the International air map, it is well connected from all parts of the world. Hence tourists visiting other Far East Countries include tour package Singapore in their holiday lists. As it is located close to Equator, the weather is hot and humid all-round the year without any significant change in the weather pattern.

Being the most sought after tourist spot, you have a wide variety of tour packages to Singapore from which you can select the most suitable package. Accommodation will not be a problem as tourists find plenty of Singapore hotels and one can select a hotel according to one's budget.

Through a planned inventory, tour package Singapore can be covered in a comprehensive manner. Being an island, there are many beautiful beaches where a tourist can relax or indulge in water sports activities. Apart from beaches, packages to Singapore also include many other equally important places. One of them is the Singapore Zoo, which is one of the most spectacular zoos in the world because of the use of natural barriers like rock walls, vegetation and streams to separate visitors from animals. It appears like an open zoo.

Sentosa Island Resort is another place where one finds everything from culture and entertainment, lush green environment, dancing fountains in the beautiful gardens and golf courses. There are many beautiful sandy beaches along Sentosa. On weekends, the beaches come alive with beach volleyball games. One can take the Jewel Cable Car Ride, which is at a height of 120 m above sea, from mainland to Sentosa Island. The ride gives a panoramic view of the lush green scenery and the beautiful sea from the cable car. Many Singapore hotels offer packages which includes visit to Sentosa.

Imbiah Lookout provides a variety of entertainment like adventure and nature for the whole family. MegaZip Adventure Park is the place for adventure lovers. Tourists can zip down suspended from a cable wire from top of Imbiah Lookout and land at one of the beaches. A real adrenalin pumping exercise indeed! All tour packages to Singapore are incomplete without a visit to this adventure park.

You can see more than 50 species of butterflies fluttering or admire world's rare and beautiful insects at the Butterfly Park and Insect Kingdom. Another attraction for tourists is the 37 meters tall replica of The Merlion- half lion, half fish creature, which is the symbol of Singapore. Singapore has many splendid beaches. Silaso beach has a 7,650 square meter simulated wave surfing attraction and Azzura beach club offers variety of water sports facility. Palawan and Tanjong are two of best sandy beaches wooing visitors. Underwater world and Dolphin Lagoon gives an underwater tour experience through the underwater tunnel, wherein you can have close encounters with sharks, eels, stingrays and other varieties of fish.

A person visiting South East Asian countries should include tour package Singapore in his visit as well. A tourist does not have to worry about increased budget as Singapore can be covered within 2-3 days and Singapore hotels are available to suit varied budgets.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/destinations-articles/singapore-a-tropical-paradise-on-earth.htm - Article

Side

Ajay Kumar - About Author:
Along with visits to other neighbouring countries, a tourist can always include in his a Singapore tour package visit. In a Singapore hotels are available from five star categories to the budget category. Accordingly a Singapore packages are priced depending on the traveller's choice of the hotel.

Article Keywords:
Singapore hotels, Singapore tour packages, Singapore packages, tour to singapore

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!