Hello guys! Itâ€™s December- the month we had been waiting for. The year is coming to an end and there are a slew of options you might consider to spend your holidays. After a year of tiring work, itâ€™s time to pack up our bags and land up on a place where we have never been before. Thatâ€™s how we can make this Christmas vacation a memorable and special one. There are countless of beautiful vacation destinations in the world which you may consider to spend your vacation. One place that I feel would be ideal to spend your Christmas vacation is Spain.

Spain has been one of the most preferred destinations for vacation-goers and globetrotters for a long time. Spain offers loads of cheap vacation packages for family and spending a vacation is probably the best way to explore the exquisiteness of this place. Whether you are looking for an adventurous holiday or a romantic holiday or a family holiday, Spain has got a lot to boast about. In Spain, you can enjoy a host of fun-filled activities like hiking, horse riding, sailing, fishing and what not! Hobby vacationers donâ€™t forget to carry your digital camera with you as this place is perfect for photograph lovers.

Here are some of the most popular destinations of Spain:

Alhambra- This place is a fortress, palace and garden all bundled into one. The origin of Alhambra dates back to the 14th century and was built by the Nasrid sultans.

Mezquita of Cordoba- It is a captivating building well-known for its ancient pillars and arches present inside the hall. This place was initially a Roman temple but was later changed to Visigothic church before it was finally became the Mezquita (pronounced as â€˜Mosqueâ€™ in Spanish).

Sagrada Familia, a huge Roman Catholic Church located at Barcelona, is one of the most popular tourist attractions of Spain. It was designed by a Catalan architect named Antoni GaudÃ-. Itâ€™s believed that he worked on this project for about 40 years before he passed away in 1926.

La Concha- this place boasts what is arguably one of the best beaches in Europe. Here you can spend your time relaxing and calming yourself by promenading along the sides of the beach amidst the chill breeze. There is nothing more enjoyable and relaxing than an evening beach walk with your partner. Surfing is probably one of the best activities that you can do in the beach of La Concha. You also have a multitude of multi-cuisine restaurants nearby the beach and if you want to try out a new dish or two, this is your best chance for you.

Aqueduct of Segovia-

The origin of this huge historical monument dates back to the Roman period in Spain. This amazing monument was built with 24,000 monolithic granite blocks notably without the use of mortar. This aqueduct, believed to be constructed in 50 AD, carried water to the city even in the 20th century and it presently carries water from the FrÃ-o River to Segovia.

Rosas is another beautiful holiday attraction of Spain. This place is home to numerous beaches and historic monuments that date back to the ancient era of Crusades.

Spain is home to over a dozen of glittering beaches and pleasant weather and tourists should not miss to spend time enjoying the pristine beauty of these beaches. If you are planning to stay near the beach areas, you may rent a beach resort or any of the luxurious villas available there. Puerto Rico is one example of such a beautiful beach resort. Holidaying in Puerto Rico is fun. It is one of the best resorts on this small island. This place, which is boosted with the presence of a slew of apartments and hotels, is best suited for a family vacation. The resort is also enriched with the presence of a pristine beach, swimming pools, and a colorful garden. Puerto Rico also offers a host of fun-filled activities like diving, jet-skiing, sailing, wind surfing, fishing and a lot more. In this resort, you can also enjoy underwater cruises and gratifying boat trips. This humble island also swanks a beautiful harbor.

As a general advice, Iâ€™d like to add, when you go for holidays, itâ€™s better to install a security system home to protect your valuable things. You may install any of the popular home security systems like the ADT Home Security.
