Thailand â€“ Explore the Stunning Oriental Country

By Aanchal Gupta

Article published on December 21st 2011 | Destinations

Thailand is a large vivid country with many distinct cultures and traditions. The culture of Thailand is a potpourri of all the countries that have made an impact on the Thai people, which has resulted in a rich heritage. The highest visited tourist places in Thailand are Bangkok and Pattaya. Bangkok is the capital of Thailand and Pattaya, located very close to Bangkok is a seaside city. Both the cities have very distinct cultures. Bangkok is the economic hub of Thailand and Pattaya is a sea resort with stunning natural panoramas. There are many packages for Thailand which include visits to all the major tourist attraction.

Thailand has a well developed road as well as railway system, so traveling from one place to another will not be a problem. Bangkok is the main travel centre in Thailand. It is advisable to explore the road as well as rail networks in your Bangkok tour package. One can get to Bangkok easily and its international airport is one of the best in the world. It is which is connected to all the major airlines worldwide. Therefore, whenever selecting packages for Thailand, it makes more sense to take a Bangkok tour package as well, as this will allow you to visit all other destination easily. The seaside resort city Pattaya is not far away from Bangkok. It takes merely 2 hours to reach Pattaya from Bangkok and so, you can include a tour to Pattaya from Bangkok.

Pattaya is better known as the resort city of Thailand. Itâ€™s a vibrant city filled with all the characteristics of nature from beaches to national parks. This beach city has the finest beaches with sparkling clean water, which is free of pollution. The Pattaya beach is shaped like half moon and is a delight to see. For someone who loves beaches, a tour to Pattaya is highly recommended. There are sea facing villas which can be a great relaxing place. Other relaxing facilities like spa and massage parlor are also available in these resorts. With all such facilities, Pattaya can be considered a completely soothing and relaxing destination. So if you are tired from your long work schedule and need a break, then a tour to Pattaya is the best option for you.

Thailand is also famous for its diving sites and natural coral reefs. Non divers can experience the rich coral reef by traveling in a bottomed glass boat. The specialty of these boats is that they make it possible for you to see the coral reefs without having to get into the water. There are several packages for Thailand which include these beautiful sightseeing experiences.

If you are looking for a happening nightlife, both Pattaya and Bangkok will satisfy your expectations. Bangkok has a very urban population and houses many discos and nightclubs. For the party people, a Bangkok tour package is a must.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/destinations-articles/thailand-explore-the-stunning-oriental-country.htm - Article Side

Aanchal Gupta - About Author:
There are various a package for Thailand to select from. Bangkok is the ultimate destination for party people; therefore select a a Bangkok tour package accordingly. To explore the wonders of nature, one has to be on the a tour to Pattaya.

Article Keywords:
packages for Thailand, Bangkok tour package, tour to Pattaya

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!