Article published on July 20th 2012 | Destinations

Barcelona is one of the more popular cities in Spain today. It is a great and exciting city in Spain which offers plenty of culture, history, tradition and modern amenities. There is so much to see and do in Barcelona that there is never a dull moment while holidaying in this vibrant city.

Day excursions

There are many types of day tours through established and reputable tour operators which one can take on. Most of these day excursions would only take 3-4 hours and can be enjoyed in the mornings or afternoons. There would be an efficient tour guide who would be proficient in the desired language of the tour group to provide the best of Barcelona information at each sight.

There are many advantages to these day excursions; one would get to visit the best of Barcelona in comfort at the shortest possible time. The experienced and knowledgeable tour guides would be able to furnish the best information on that interesting Barcelona sight with regards to history and value.

With day excursions, the tourist would enjoy cheaper entrance rates to the various sites with special privileges such as skipping queues and getting VIP treatment. At various times of the year, there may be special discounts to the day excursion fares; hence, more savings would be enjoyed by the tourists.

Barcelona Half-day Tour

These half-day excursions on Barcelona are very popular. There are many choices for tourists to select. One can spend more time at any of the guided toursâ€™ sites in their personal time. One can enjoy various famous sightseeing places such as Sagrada Familia or the Santa Maria church from half day tours.

Tours can be conducted in English, Spanish or any preferred language depending on the preference of the group. Half-day tours of Barcelona can be secured from reputed tour operators or through the hotels which tourists are staying in. Prices for half-day tours differ from operator to operator depending on services rendered. Some tours include lunch and gifts.

Barcelona Full-day Tour

Some tourists may only have one free day to sight Barcelona if they are coming in for a business meeting or conference. Hence, a full-day Barcelona tour would allow these tourists to get the best overview of Barcelona.

One can enjoy quick guided visits to La Pedrera, Sagrada Familia, Park GÃ¼ell and the church of Santa Maria del Mar.

Tourists on a full-day Barcelona tour would enjoy the services of an experienced and fluent tour guide at every sightseeing site.
