The Exquisite Kefalonia Villas for a Great Holiday by Alan Rooster

Article published on November 25th 2011 | Destinations

Kefalonia is the largest Ionian island which has retained much of its splendor without the massive development that befalls most island spots. It is the perfect holiday destination for those who want real tranquility while experiencing the real Greece.

Offerings

Kefalonia has lots to offer; besides being a great tourist spot, it holds lots of history although much of its fame is based on its legend. The legendary king of the island was King Kefalos who won many legendary battles on this island.

There are many types of scenery on Kefalonia Island. It spans from spectacular mountain ranges to soft sandy beaches. The island is mainly dominated by Mount Ainos at about 1600 meters as one of Greeceâ€™s highest peaks. The beautiful soft sandy beaches of Kefalonia have won the worldwide Blue Flag Award for their beauty and wide range of amenities and facilities for tourists.

There are luxurious Kefalonia villas along the beaches and at the mountain slopes slightly inland. Southern beaches sport sandy white sand while northern Kefalonia beaches are more shingly with lots of pebbles.

Villa features

All Kefalonia villas are designed to give their guests the best of comfort and luxury during their vacation holiday on the island. Hence, each villa is well equipped with the best amenities to cater to all the needs of the guests. Every Kefalonia villa has TV/DVD, air conditioning, spacious bedrooms, bathrooms, swimming pool, dining and living rooms, fully equipped kitchen, dishwasher and washing machine.

The furniture and fittings in the interior spaces are modern and classy with tiles and beautiful contemporary designs. The exterior showcases exquisite architectural features of various eras depending on the choice of Kefalonia villas on the island. There is a large garden that can cater to some light entertainment with a barbecue pit and swimming pool to enjoy the evening breeze. All Kefalonia villas are well enclosed to give their guests the desired privacy whether they laze around leisurely or have a party.

Kefalonia villas can accommodate small to large parties of 2 â€“ 20 persons.

Choice Location

Most Kefalonia villas are well located around the island to the convenience of the guests. These villas are well built at locations that will give the best view of the island and surrounding landscapes. Some Kefalonia villas are located in the hamlet of Tselentata at the north while others are on the slopes of Mount Ainos. Kefalonia villas on the slopes offer spectacular mountain views and fresh air while those near the beach offer the soft gentle sea breeze and sea waves swishing all day and night.

Villa Holidays With Flights in Kefalonia villas are just a couple of minutes away from the villages or towns on the island for an interesting night life or shopping.
